Daily Intelligencer.

VERY UNKIND.

The Montreal Star is awfully unkind. Day after day and week after week it keeps bringing up incidents which show that the most critical to be applied to the Grit leaders to day are their own words when out of office. Here is an instance of very unfeeling way in which the Star is talking.

What more convulsing to anybody with a sense of the ridiculous, in the light of the enormous expenditure of time, could there be than the following resolution, which was passed amidst deafening applause by the men and the followers of the man who are voting such immense sums.

"We cannot but view with alarm the large increase of the public debt, and of the controllable expenditure of the Dominion, and the consequent undue taxation of the people under the Government that have been continuously in power since 1878, and we demand the strictest economy in the administration of the government of the country."

Of course it must be confessed that after declaring that resolution innocent and confiding people might have looked for some retrenchment, and at what an exquisite joke it must have seemed to Sir Wilfrid, or Sir Richard, or Mr. McMillen, or even the small fry of the party, when they saw that the great majority of the people of Canada actually expected to have them carry out their promises. Bless the people who never expected the Grits to do anything but talk. They wanted to get into power. As long as they could make people believe they'd talk and promise till the moon turned blue. When twitted in the House with the fact that he had not carried out his promise, Sir Wilfrid said in substance: "Oh, well, that doesn't matter. We're in power and you're out."

Are not the great majority of the electors of Canada about tired of these frauds and mountebanks and jugglers?

We think so, and we think that at the next general election the Sixty Million Government will go out of power.

THE DOUKHOBORS.

The Doukhobors, those immigrants from the Able Young Minister, Mr. Tolstoy, preferred to good immigrants from the Doukhobors, have had a good deal of markish sentiment wasted on them because of their alleged scruples about taking up arms in defence of their country. They have been likened to the Quakers, and some of the Liberal papers have made it appear that, owing to their saintliness, they were actually persecuted in their native land. The following news from the Selkirk, Man., Journal, a good Gritsion journal, while it does not, of course, prove that all Doukhobors are murderers or hypocrites, shows that they are not all the saints the Siftonian press has been at such pains to make the people of Canada believe they are:

"A fight which nearly ended in tragedy occurred at the ferry landing on Monday evening among some Doukhobors. One of their number, becoming enraged at something another had said, attempted to split open his head with one of their short handled axes. The commotion caused by the fight attracted a large number of onlookers. Mr. Holgate, however, caught the axe as the man was about to give the blow, then hustled the other into the boat and the other into the boat. The assailant was taken to the Selkirk, where the matter was settled."

THEN AND NOW.

When in Opposition, the blue rain knight, Sir Richard Cartwright, used to speak of the Tories as "this country's dead-end," because they spent $38,000,000 in governing Canada. Here is an example of how the Liberals talked when in office and how they squander when in power:

"For my own part," said Sir Richard Cartwright, "I do not hesitate to tell him (the Finance Minister) that I consider a yearly expenditure of $40,000,000 for the purpose of governing Canada, is a very large sum."

"Sir, the thing is utterly unjustified. There is very little use for hon. gentlemen when they are in power."

"I say it is a disgrace and a shame to government that has been entrusted with affairs that they come down to and ask for an expenditure of $38,000,000 a year for Federal purposes."

"Sir, the thing is utterly unjustified. There is very little use for hon. gentlemen when they are in power."

"I say it is a disgrace and a shame to government that has been entrusted with affairs that they come down to and ask for an expenditure of $38,000,000 a year for Federal purposes."

"Sir, the thing is utterly unjustified. There is very little use for hon. gentlemen when they are in power."

sent extravagant mode of Government, and to reduce your extravagant ideas.

"I have said, and I repeat it, that $38,000,000 is, in my judgment, a monstrous sum for this people to be called on to provide for."

And the Toronto Globe, which used up all the adjectives in the language in condemning the extravagance of the wicked and spendthrift Tories, published, without a word of protest, the following:

"Canada's running expenses for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1893, are estimated at $21,783,895 by the Minister of Finance. The main estimate, however, is by Hon. W. S. Fielding in April last, were for $24,286,550, of which $4,733,252 were chargeable to capital. Last year the total amount voted was $47,000,487. It will be seen that the country's expenditure for the present year will be some $3,885,408 greater than for the preceding year."

And this is not by any means. The other supplementary will bring the total fully up to sixty millions.

And the virtuous and frugal Sir Richard says not a word.

Bribery and Fraud in South Ontario and West Eglin

Was the Work of a Central Organization of Criminals—An Independent Journal Talks Plainly.

(Weekly Farmers' Union.)

"The alarming feature of both the South Ontario and West Eglin cases is that the bribery and fraud were the work, not of the few individuals who were reported by the court, but of a central organization of criminals."

"The punishment of a few petty bribers will not satisfy the public conscience. The whole disgraced business must be probed to the bottom, and the men who organized the crimes against the ballot brought to the bar."

"Liberal organs are filled just now with details of manifold crimes and misdemeanors committed on behalf of Conservatives during election contests in the past."

"This is simply a repetition of the course of the proverbial pot attributing blackness to the kettle."

"But however good such an answer may be from a party standpoint, what satisfaction is it to the independent elector, or, indeed, to the honest elector of either party, to be informed that because there have been rascals in the past, therefore we must not say much about the rascals of the present?"

"Surely independent electors have some right to expect that the Government will not be a mere machine."

"They at least have a right to demand that the administration of justice shall not be made a mere annex to the party machine."

JACQUES CARTIER BANK SUSPENDS

Owing to a Run Upon It Caused by the French Press.

Montreal, Aug. 1.—The Jacques Cartier Bank has suspended, and the following official notice has been issued:

WRONG ABOUT YOUR EYES.

You've been wrong in thinking you ought to put off wearing glasses as long as possible. This thing is responsible for much of the present day eye trouble. All eyes begin to fail at 10 years of age. When complicated with uncorrected defects which have existed the failure begins much sooner. A correction at the right time will save years of eye. Neglect is bound to injure them.

AN ORIGINAL STORY.

On Friday next THE INTELLIGENCER will begin the publication of an original story "The Haunted Castle," which will be found poetical in design and full of sustained interest. While evidently the work of a beginner, it shows the author to be possessed of a good deal of talent in the way of descriptive power, and we can say with confidence that to our readers "THE HAUNTED CASTLE" will more than repay an attentive perusal.

Gentlemen's Top Coats.

We have received an early shipment of fashionable light weight fall top coats. These garments are equal in every respect to any made-to-order garments, and cost nearly one-half less. Quality, fit and wear guaranteed. $7.00, $8.50, $10.00—QUICK & ROBERTSON.

Mysterious Fires at Madoc last Month, of which the Last Has Not Yet Been Heard.

On the 7th of July last, Mr. Charles W. Bacon, of the 8th con., Township of Madoc, had his barns and outbuildings destroyed by fire, the insurance amounting to about $4,000.

Some suspicious circumstances having come to the knowledge of the company carrying the risk, they put detectives on the ground to fresh winds, shifting to west and north west; for the most part fair, but some local showers or thunder storms on Thursday.

AN OPEN VERDICT

Returned by the Jury in the McCoy Case at Marmora.

The Examining Physician Swore That Death Was Caused by Strychnine, but Qualified His Statement Immediately.

In our issue of Saturday last we stated, upon information which was considered reliable, that the stomach of the girl May McCoy, of Marmora, who died suddenly under peculiar circumstances, had been sent to Toronto for analysis and the report showed that strychnine had been found therein. This seems to have been an error, as we were informed to-day that the girl's stomach was not sent to Toronto, but remained in the possession of physicians residing in Marmora.

On Friday last at Marmora the adjourned inquest was held, the following gentlemen composing the jury:

R. Campion (foreman), C. Clairmont, T. Jackson, Ben Demars, Emory Demars, J. Holland, J. W. Naylor, H. Jones, R. E. Campion, W. Knox, W. Phillips, J. Downard, Jacob McWilliams.

The principal witness sworn was Dr. Jones, of Marmora, who made the post mortem examination. In his evidence in chief he swore that in his opinion death was caused by strychnine poisoning, but upon cross-examination he admitted that he was not positive as to the cause of death, which might have been caused by one or a combination of diseases, several of which he enumerated.

The evidence given by the physician evidently displeased the jury, who were out some time before recording their verdict, which was to the effect that May McCoy came to her death on July 6th, 1899, through causes unknown to them.

Mr. W. J. Moore, barrister of Malces, was present at the inquest in the interest of M. McCoy, the stepmother of the unfortunate girl, and against whom rumors of an unsavory nature in reference to the girl's death, had been circulated.

At present it is impossible to state whether the matter will be allowed to drop or whether steps will be taken to ascertain the true cause of the girl's death.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made of him. He is now 65 years of age, and so helpless for five years that he could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Balm, his condition was wonderfully improved and he took his own work.

OF ASSAULT.

Magistrate Flint Severely Reprimands Two Youthful Offenders.

Two boys named Mark Adamson and Ross McLean, were this morning charged before the Magistrate, with assaulting three ladies named E. Alfons, E. Meyers and F. Frost whilst in discharge of their duties carrying daily papers for Mr. Marsh. The offenders were found guilty and, in addition to being severely reprimanded, by the Magistrate were each fined $2 and $1 costs or 10 days in jail. The Magistrate stated that if a charge of intimidation had been preferred against them, the sentence which he would have been compelled to inflict upon them would have been severe.

FIRE BUGS AT TRENTON

Attempt to Burn the G.T.R. Freight Shed at That Place.

An attempt which fortunately proved unsuccessful was made at about 3 o'clock yesterday morning to burn the G.T.R. freight shed at the town of Trenton. The building in question is built upon abutments and on top of some of the abutments are situated a few small buildings, for which it pays a good round sum, not by any means satisfactory. There may have been an excuse for it last night, when we understand there was a break of some description in the machinery, but for some time past the service has been poor and altogether unsatisfactory.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That the maddest man in town on Monday night was a lifelong Conservative who had a Grit paper left him by mistake.

That some people in Belleville are mean enough to try and beat their way on Sunday School excursions.

That Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Ontario flunkies have lost hope, and that it would be the height of impudence for them, with the black record of the present session behind them, to try again present themselves before the electors whose confidence they have so grossly betrayed.

That the Laurier Government is bleeding the country to death. The Meador Region was honest and economical by comparison.

That the City Waterworks pressure for lawn purposes is very unsatisfactory—you cannot get a morning guarantee to throw water from a garden nozzle to a greater distance than 10 feet. If we are to save fuel and make money by inconveniencing the public we have made a mistake in laying the works.

HAS SIR RICHARD'S PLEDGE

That he Should Get the Third Ontario Vacancy.

Mr. N. Vermilyea, of Belleville, Seems to be in Line for the Next Senatorship, if the Liberal Leaders Keep Their Word.

Ottawa, Aug. 1.—These are days of tribulation in Ministerial circles, especially amongst the Ontario Ministers. The vacant seat in the Upper House consequent upon the death of Senator Stanford is giving members of the Government many a sleepless night. The pulling and hauling for this coveted position is almost incredible. By many it is considered that Mr. S. H. Jones, of Toronto, is entitled to the plum, but it is felt in some quarters that he will have a close runner up in Mr. A. T. Wood, M.P. for Hamilton. The list of candidates is increasing daily and now numbers in the vicinity of 20.

Among those mentioned for the position, and whose claims are being urged by themselves or their friends, are—Mr. David Blain, ex-M.P.; Mr. John Waldie, ex-M.P.; Mr. James Lowell, ex-M.P. for Welland; Mr. Jas. Young, of Galt; Mr. Jas. Lums, ex-M.P.; George M. J. Kerr, M.P. for Q. C. Toronto; Mr. Robert Jaffray, president of the Globe newspaper; Mr. James Somerville, M.P.; Mr. McMillen, M.P.; Dr. MacDonald, M.P.; Huron; Mr. N. Vermilyea, of Belleville, who has the definite pledge of Sir Richard Cartwright that he should get the third Ontario vacancy in the Upper House, which this one is Hon. Thos. Ballantyne, of Stratford; Mr. A. P. Cockburn, ex-M.P. and Mr. H. M. Cook, M.P.

With such a plethora of gentlemen who are anxious to serve their country in the Upper House, it is not to be wondered at that the Government finds it difficult to make a choice.

JOY GO WITH THEM.

Nuptials of Mr. J. E. Terrill, of Pictou, and Miss George Sutherland, of this City.

A pretty home wedding occurred at noon to-day at "Grey Lodge," the residence of Mrs. Wm. Sutherland, Victoria Avenue. It was the marriage of Miss George Sutherland, youngest daughter of Mrs. Sutherland, to Mr. J. E. Terrill, of the town of Pictou. Only a few of the relatives of the bride and groom were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. T. J. Thompson, pastor of the John Street Presbyterian Church. The bride was becomingly attired in a tasteful brown velvet traveling suit. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Mary Sutherland. The groom was assisted by Mr. Alfred Denike, of Pictou, Prince Edward County. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold watch and chain, and to the bridesmaid a pretty pearl and opal ring. After the ceremony the company partook of a recherche wedding breakfast. The young couple left this afternoon on a wedding trip to Chicago, after which they will take up their residence in Pictou. The bride is a popular young lady and has been an active worker in John St. Church, where she will be much missed. Amongst the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Terrill, New York; Mr. and Mrs. John Terrill and Mrs. Alfred Terrill and Mr. David Terrill, Pictou; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sutherland, of Hamilton.

LIGHTNING'S WORK.

Mr. James Spry Sustains Severe Loss Through Fire.

Between 9 and 10 o'clock this morning a severe electric storm passed over this section of the country. In the City it was not so severe, but a few miles north the lightning was very vivid and the thunder heavy whilst rain descended in torrents. During its progress, a barn belonging to Mr. James Spry, near Stirling village, was struck by lightning and destroyed with most of the season's crop. Loss about $1,000; insurance $800.

Another Barn Struck.

During this morning's storm lightning struck a barn owned by Mr. Peter Milne, four miles east of the G.T.R. Station, and the building, which was full of grain, was totally destroyed by fire. Mr. Milne got his horses out just in time to save them. The building was insured for $400.

Scalped a Ticket.

The branch of industry known as "ticket scalping" is not unknown in France, as will be seen from the following incident, which befell a too-confiding Englishman, who arrived at the St. Lazare Station, Paris, just as the ticket office closed. "By Jove," he said, "I must get to Rouen to-day!"

A gentleman approached I and addressed him: "Pardon me, sir, but I have a ticket to Rouen, which I cannot use. I shall be delighted to let you have it for what it cost me."

"Much obliged," and the Englishman hurriedly made his way to the gate, being only just in time to catch the train. At the first stopping place the guard appeared to verify the ticket. The Englishman handed him his billet.

The guard examined it, and said, "Now your own, if you please."

"My own? Why, you have it."

"Have you any idea of travelling with this ticket?"

"Certainly. Why not?"

"It is a dog ticket."

Oil and fuel and water are available. The ores are good, and can be mined and converted into copper metal. The copper will be produced on the ground and in plant and material per car, and according to estimates will cost copper at 15 cts. each. It is now 18 cts.

made upon the label lead, and ten hours' work of ore, averaging about 60 per cent. of copper.

Copper mines or towns have been shipped of high grade ore.

That a deposit of this nature can at a very small expense be made into profits, from all existing reports, appears not only likely but certain.

FROM REPORT OF FRANCIS ARTHUR REALL, SUPERINTENDANT.

"This property is all right and there is all the copper you want here. I think it is the best in Texas and it seems to have been selected as such, for copper. It is near the top of a water table and the hills crop here. I think there is oil here because there is coal. Oil has been found at Corsicana. The property is adapted to general farming purposes which seems to be a very profitable here and a much less out of it and a railroad built to Dundee, 12 miles to a great advantage."

THE GREAT BOOM IN COPPER SHARES.

Copper mining has proved the safest and most profitable industry in America, and the largest and most conservative capitalists in the world have recently become large investors in copper stocks.

This company can produce copper as cheaply as any in the world. It is capitalized the lowest of any in proportion to its acreage, and at the price of copper-bearing land in Michigan (25¢ per acre) it can produce a much less net cost of copper.

is found can also be more economically capitalized ($2,000,000).

Receipts for ore and assays by the leading chemists and assayers in the country are on file at the company's offices.

The officers and directors of the company are men of the highest standing and business capacity, and include:

Hon. Emery M. Low, manufacturer, and Mayor of the city of Brockton, Mass., President of W. Russell, Paper Manufacturer, Boston, Vice-President.
Major F. M. Spaulding, 2d Vice-President.
Col. Edward B. Rolins, Boston, Treasurer.
Col. James M. Wheaton, Boston, Secretary.
Hon. Jas. W. Bennett, Ex-President Erie Telephone Co.

Only a limited amount of stock will be sold at the price of $5.00 per share and those wishing to secure shares should act at once. The stock is full paid and non-assessable. As soon as the allotment is sold the price will be advanced.

Amount of land, quantity and quality of ore, cheapness of mining and treatment, nearness to transportation, favorable climate for continuous work the year around, the increasing demand for copper, the fact that the property is situated in one of the richest copper-bearing fields in the world, unequalled advantages and affords the best kind of investment. It can easily earn 50 per cent per year on the price at which the stock is offered here.

and others, Boston, Mass.: * * * Gentlemen.—There is abundant evidence of rich copper deposits, not only at the mines already owned, but it is my opinion that this will prove to be one of the exceptionally rich copper-bearing fields of the United States. All of the copper masses with which they can be mined are reduced.

As the cost of mining will be very small, as the ore is not in hard formation; and there is no deep work made by them, and confirm them.

I investigate, and I have done so carefully, I am of the opinion it is one of the richest copper fields in the country.

Very respectfully yours,
T. BURTON EVERETT, M. E.

of Butte, Montana, after gaining sample of ore from the property, says: "The ore is the richest in the country. If you have the year."

and C. F. Crosby, Esq., of Lowell, Mass., who returned June 16th from an examination of the property on behalf of the Company's Board of Directors, state that they found the property as represented and confirm the expert reports. They visited and examined the nine mines and the extensive workings of the same, and were accompanied by the principal owners and some of the most prominent and successful men connected with substantial business men in the management. It has such extensive acreage of land, rich in copper, and so easily and cheaply mined and paid during the current year. Now is the time to make a safe and profitable investment, and those who take advantage of this opportunity will reap the benefit.

Gleason Won the Third Race.
Montreal, Aug. 1.—The Canadian defender, Gleason III, won the third of the series of races for the Savannah cup, which was sailed on Lake St. Louis this afternoon, crossing the finishing line 3 minutes 6 seconds ahead of the American challenger. The race was the most exciting one that has ever been sailed for the cup, and was full of surprises. At one time it was thought that it would be Constance's race, but the fine sailing of Dugan, the Canadian skipper, enabled him to secure a victory and to bring his boat across the line first.

The Constance did well in windward work, but on the free run was out-fitted by the Gleason. Towards the close the breeze had gone down so much that it became almost a duffing match. Dugan, the Canadian skipper, today sailed a splendid race, and some of his tactics were very clever. The series now stands two to one in favor of the American. To-morrow's race will be over a triangular course.

Shamrock Sails To-morrow.
Greenock, Scotland, Aug. 1.—The American's cup challenger, Shamrock, left her jury sails to-day preparatory to starting Thursday for the United States. Lloyd's agents were very exacting in regard to strengthening the yacht, and the workmen have had great difficulty in boring holes in the aluminum. Her companies will be adjusted to-morrow.

A Good Catch.
Robert Bell and John Draycott yesterday secured 14 black bass, averaging nearly 3 lbs., in about two hours.

Teddy Hale, the Irish bicycle racer, started from Holloway Viaduct at London yesterday in an effort to ride one hundred miles daily for a year, Sunday excepted.

New York, August 1.—Fitzsimmons will undergo a surgical operation in the ring, the matter of his future career in the ring.

Fitzsimmons' right arm, which was injured in his bout with Vank Kenney, his sparring partner, several months ago, is now in a critical condition. Physicians who have examined the arm with X-rays found that a piece of bone at the elbow had been clipped away and an operation is the only thing that will be beneficial. Fitzsimmons says he is anxious for another go with Jeffries.

Love's Dearest Moment.
Love's dearest moment is not when the hands are clasped in marriage, and the world is won. Nor when all the important world has gone, and flaming passion like the archangel stands between two souls, and welds with fire the bands of union.

Up on the morning after, when the bride is in the arms of the groom, and the world is won, and the hands are clasped in marriage, and the world is won.

THE TABLE SET FOR TWO.

The sunshine falls on the window sill, And the day looks in at the open door. The kettle sings, and the shutters are flung, And the air is fresh and the light is clear.

With plate and pitcher and fork and spoon, And the day looks in at the open door. And she sits there with a quiet grace, On the homely table set for two.

Oh, the bread is like the sun's white spray, And the cloth is clean as mountain snow. From the pantry comes the kitchen maid, And the dear old wife is on her feet to-day.

The morning dawns on the open door, And the day looks in at the open door. And she sits there with a quiet grace, On the homely table set for two.

WRONG ABOUT YOUR EYES.

You've been wrong in thinking you ought to put off wearing glasses as long as possible. This very thing is responsible for much of the present day trouble of eyes. All eyes begin to fail at four years of age. When complicated with uncorrected defects which have existed the failure begins much sooner. A correction at the right time will save your eyes. Neglect is bound to injure them.

WANTED HIS DAUGHTER

And Took the Law Into His Own Hands to Get Her—Magistrate Flint at Tweed.

On Monday Magistrate Flint was at Tweed trying a case which caused much comment. From the evidence it appears that a child of Mr. Henry Geary, of Belleville, went to live with a Mrs. Kerwin and daughter some nine years ago, when its mother died. Geary went to the States and did not return until some time ago. He demanded his child, which was refused, and has been trying to get her back, but Miss Kerwin opposed all his efforts, partly because the child did not want to go back, not knowing her father, and partly because, since the girl was now getting to be of some use, Miss Kerwin thought that she should either receive pay for the girl's keeping or else be allowed to keep her a few years longer so that she, by her own usefulness, would pay for her keeping in the past. On the 26th inst. Geary and Miss Kerwin and the child on the bridge near Stoco and it is alleged he violently choked Miss Kerwin and threatened to throw her and his daughter in the river. The matter was reported to Father Tremay for decision and he decided that Geary ought to pay $150 or $200 for the child's keeping, but he refused, and getting the child, took her with him. The Magistrate reserved judgment in the case until Friday.

DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING

Three Barns Suffer From the Destructive Fluid.

During the severe thunder storm which visited this section of the community yesterday morning much damage was done by lightning. The residence of Mr. John Quinn, at Tweed, was struck, and although the considerable damage was done, was not destroyed. Mrs. Quinn and Miss Tierney, who were in the house at the time, were stunned, but fortunately escaped serious injuries. Mr. Wm. Hawkins' barn, near West Huntington, was struck by lightning yesterday morning and totally destroyed, together with some grain and implements. There was no insurance. A house and barn belonging to a Mr. Hubble, who resides near the village of Stirling, were destroyed by fire yesterday morning as a result of the storm.

DAMS WILL BE REPAIRED.

Gilmour Company Sends a Gang of Men for That Purpose.

Tweed News.—The Gilmour Co. have decided to repair and rebuild the dams, where necessary, along the Schoonmaker river this summer, and on Monday the company's head foreman, Jas. McCaw, accompanied by two other foremen, Asael Airhart and Jas. Gault, and a gang of men and teams, passed through Tweed on their way to the north to begin the work. Among other dams to be looked after by these men is the Loon Lake dam, concerning which so much has been said in this and other papers of the county during the past few months.

B. of Q.R.R. May be Extended

Toronto Star.—Mr. R. C. Carter, of Toronto, the general manager of the Rathbun Company, of that place, was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Carter is a very successful business man, but is of the Greenway type as far as giving interviews goes. However, this morning he intimated that business was very good in his district, that he understood that the Bay of Quinte Railway was to be extended at once, and almost hinted that he was here on that particular business.

WHAT WILL THE TRACKMEN DO?

Executive Waiting for Orders from Branch Lines.

Trackmen on Branch Lines Want the Same Pay as Men on the Main Line.

Montreal, Aug. 2.—The trackmen of the Grand Trunk system, who were started yesterday to have been on the verge of a strike, are still working. Mr. Pole, the chairman, is waiting for orders from the men on branch lines before any movement as to striking will be considered. It was explained by Mr. Pole that the presence of an organizer in town should not be taken as a positive indication of a strike. In short, he said that such statements only tended to antagonize Mr. Hays, the manager of the Grand Trunk Railway system. Everything so far was quiet, and the trackmen on branch lines were working, but they wanted ten cents a day increase, the same as the men on the main lines.

"Why," said Mr. Pole, "the branch line trackmen work on six-mile sections, and on main lines five miles; they have poorer material with which to work, fewer competent assistants, and get less pay than those on the main lines." A meeting with Mr. Hays was anticipated before the end of the week, and every effort would be made to ward off the undesirable effect of a strike.

Organizer Lowe, of the Brotherhood of Section Foremen and Trackmen, has returned from Ottawa, and is now at the headquarters of the Executive Committee. "I have seen the telegram from Sept. Jones, of the middle division," said the organizer, "announcing that five hundred men at least on that division have accepted the increase of ten cents a day, and that all danger of a strike is ended; but I would rather not discuss that point at present. Later on I may have a meeting to say about it, but just now our policy is silence."

NO WONDER THEY LAUGHED

A Trenton Man Who Lost His Presence of Mind.

Trenton Courier.—A most ludicrous incident occurred at the recent meeting of the "Abolition Union." One of the inmates, well known in sporting circles here, whose physique and general characteristics bear a striking resemblance to one Sir John Falstaff, immortalized by the Bard of Avon, aroused from his slumbers by the roar and crackling of flames near his chamber, had sufficient presence of mind to pack up his household goods into a bundle but without waiting to clothe the "human form divine" made a dash for safety through the burning smoke, carrying his precious bundle on his shoulders and wildly shouting fire! fire! fire! A scene of indescribable confusion reigned in the big hall way of the hotel, but on the appearance of the grotesque looking figure, hysterical women and excited men forgot, for a moment the danger that surrounded them and a loud outbreak of laughter followed him to the street, where he was promptly looked after by the night watch, who extended to the unfortunate the protection of his pocket handkerchief until more ample garments were provided.

"Severe Fighting."

The Wooler correspondent of the Colborne Express writes: "After two years of severe fighting for the postmaster's position between Messrs. Garratt and Anderson, the matter was brought to a close when the latter recently received word from Hon. Mr. Mulock that he had received the appointment. Inspector Merrick, of Kingston, was in the village on Aug. 1st and made the transfer."

THE STRAIGHT ROAD TO MILLIONAIREISM

Prominent Railway Man Would Build Railroads All His Life on the Guarantees Given Mackenzie & Mann.

Winnipeg, Aug. 2.—One of the most prominent gentlemen in railway circles on the Continent said he would grapple the whole country and keep on building railways from now till his death if the Government would guarantee him what they are giving to Mackenzie & Mann. Apart from owning very valuable lands, he calculated that he could put lots of money in his pocket out of the work of construction, and then he would have the valuable land grants to boot. The railway man said the Government had never hinted at building the work. If the country had advertised the business it proposed giving, he said railway men from all over the Continent would have been tumbling over each other in their efforts to receive the plum, which is a straight road to millionaireism. He expressed the opinion that nothing but the combined influence of the U. P. R. and the Canadian Pacific, who he says are one and the same, could have induced any Government to bring down such shocking propositions.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of the slave trade is the worst of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Me., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases (which cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. S. McKeown, Druggist.

JUST LISTEN TO THIS.

The Bilious Kingston Whig Man and His Crocodile Tears.

Kingston Whig.—Poor Belleville! Its continued decline is distressing. The eligible young men have all left the place, and the fair youth and beauty of the city is withering up, recalling to mind the passage in Gray's Elegy, "Full many a flower is born to blush unseen, and waste its sweetness on the desert air." The young ladies of Belleville, those that are left, are obliged to resort to the advertising columns of outside newspapers in their endeavor to shake off the weariness of single bliss in Belleville. Toronto papers have an advertisement which reads: "A Belleville young lady of means wants a husband. Poor Belleville!"

At the rate they have been getting married lately it would hardly seem necessary for Belleville girls to advertise for husbands. However, they showed their good sense by not advertising in a Kingston paper. They knew there was nobody in that dreary old place worth having.

What It Will Do.

Polson's Nervine, the great pain cure, never fails to give prompt relief in the following complaints:—Sprains, bruises, cuts, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, neuralgia, toothache, headache, sciatica. Buy to-day at any drug store a 10 cent sample bottle and test it in any of the above complaints. It cures fast. For Nervine is a cure of all kinds of pains, and is a safe, reliable remedy in the world. Get a bottle at any drug store. You will be made happy. Ten and 25 cents a bottle.

HE SEES ITS FINISH.

A Dawson City Man Who Is Not Very Hopeful as to the Prospects of that Place.

The Putorio Review Printing and Publishing Co. have been compiling a list of the bicycle dealers of Canada, the list being used in pushing the sale of their famous bicycle luggage carrier. In the process of acquiring this list cards were sent out to the newspaper publishers in the different cities, towns and villages, and a list of several thousand dealers is the result.

Among the newspapers queried for a list of its bicycle dealers was the Dawson City Miner, and the reply received is unique, and is worth publishing. It does not paint a very rosy picture of Dawson as a bicycle centre, nor does it present a very hopeful prospect for the city's future. It is brief, but will be recognized as being very much to the point. It reads as follows:

Dawson, July 9th, 1899.
DEAR SIR:—There is no bicycle agency here, and no bicycles, and no roads on which to run a bicycle; and in two years time Dawson will only exist on the map.

Yours as usual,
ROSS A. RUMMALL,
Manager Miner.

Alex. Carscallen's Present.

Tweed News.—Mr. Alex. Carscallen, M. P., the popular member for North Hastings, has just received from the Newcastle (England) company to whom he sold his Marmora gold value a magnificent present in the form of a gold watch and chain. Mr. Carscallen values it highly on account of the gold having been taken from his own mine.

Kissing Bug Held Responsible For a Mortimer Street Man's Misfortune.

Edward Lepp, 22 years old, of No. 50 Mortimer st., Buffalo, called at the Fifth Hospital last night with his left ear distended to the size of a full grown potato. Lepp said a kissing bug had bit him.

"I knew I'd catch it," said Lepp to the doctor. "I've been watching it ever my mouth ever since those bugs came around. If I'd known they'd bite a fellow there I'd put on earplugs."

WRONG ABOUT YOUR EYES.

You've been wrong in thinking you ought to put off wearing glasses as long as possible. This very thing is responsible for much of the present day eye trouble. All eyes begin to fail at 40 years of age. When complicated with uncorrected defects which have existed the failure begins much sooner. A correction at the right time will save your eyes. Neglect is bound to injure them.

THE BAND CONCERT.

Another Large Crowd Enjoyed the Music Last Night.

We have entered upon the last month of our open air concert, and so far, the interest has been steadily increasing. One great drawback is the limited number of seats. Some people don't like to sit on the grass, those first on the scene capture the seats, and the consequence is the late comers get tired standing and go home before the concert is over. However, the concerts have been very enjoyable, and let us hope that next year the powers that be may find it possible to provide a few more benches. The band performed very creditably last night, and the large crowd present listened with evident pleasure. Mr. Lester Riggs, clarinet solo was a gem. His interpretation gave evidence of much more than cursory study, and his technique proved him to have, for one so young, a wonderful command of his instrument. The cake walk with the singing trio caught the crowd in good style.

MR. RUSH'S BULL

Causes Considerable Injury to that Gentleman, and Medical Attention was Necessary.

On Wednesday evening Mr. James Rush, a well known farmer of the 7th concession of Hastings, was severely injured by a bull. He was leading his famous "Alcot Duke," when the animal became frantic, knocking Mr. Rush down and dragging him for some distance over stones and rough ground. Both of the yeoman's knees were injured and he was bruised about the body and head, requiring medical assistance. The injuries will confine him to his bed for some time.

Of Interest to Dog Owners.

An answer has been received from Toronto in reference to the question of whether a pup is a dog. According to the By-law which governs the registration of canines in the Queen City, a pup is not liable to taxation until it is six months old. As this point has been raised here the Magistrate is of the opinion that our By-law regulating dog taxes should be similarly framed. In order here the matter settled definitely, the Council should take some action.

Napanee Bank Robbery.

In answer to a question by Mr. Bell, of Addington, the Finance Minister said that while Sir Hibbert Tupper was Minister of Justice he gave permission to Peter Vanlue, Yarker, Ont., to enter action against the Dominion Bank. Contrary to instructions, Mr. Vanlue included in the action suit to forfeit the charter of the bank. In consequence of this action the first for the suit was revoked by Hon. Mr. Dickey, successor in Sir Hibbert Tupper as Minister of Justice.

On Wednesday afternoon last, while Mr. Robt. Large, Burton st., on pleasure bent, had taken his family and gone to St. John's Church Sunday School picnic, some party or parties unknown effected an entrance to his home by raising a window, and when Mr. Large returned home he found that two dollars, which was in a drawer in the cupboard, had disappeared. Nothing else appears to have been taken, though a watch and other articles of jewellery were upstairs out of the loot. The police are on the lookout for these youngsters, but until they are caught it would be as well for our citizen to look well after the fastenings of their doors and windows before they leave their homes.

Mining Notes.

MR. WELLMAN HAS A GOOD THING. Mr. Stephen Wellman, a prospector from Madoc, brought to the City to day a number of specimens of gold ore and copper quartz for analysis by the Government Assayer. Mr. Wellman also proceeded to Deseronto for the purpose of negotiating with the Rathburn Company for the sale of a quantity of iron ore. The Seymour mine in which Mr. Wellman is interested is estimated to contain upwards of 8000 tons of first class iron ore.

(Madoc Review.)

NEW MADOC MINES. Last week Mr. Stephen Wellington, while prospecting in the vicinity of Moira Lake, discovered what promises to be a valuable mine on an O'Donnell farm, about a mile and a half from Moira village. A wide vein of magnetic ore was unearthed, especially rich in arsenic, and also containing cobalt and copper. The ownership of the farm is about changing hands, and no doubt the mine will be opened in the near future.

REPORTED MINE DEAL.

It is stated on good authority that the Cleveland Mining Company has purchased the Bannockburn mill, including the property. They will remove the plant to the Gaiting property at Deloro and will thoroughly refit and place in new and heavier machinery.

A BIG IRON MINE.

It is stated that Mr. T. B. Caldwell, Lanark, has sold his iron mine at Kdabogie, on the line of the K. & P. Railway, to a Belgium syndicate for $100,000. The sum of $10,000, it is added, was paid down. The new owners will operate the mine to its fullest extent.

DIAMOND MINES IN CANADA.

Every year some new development in the natural resources of Canada, demonstrates to Canadians the tremendous wealth and possibilities of their land. The mineral wealth is immense; and to these minerals added knowledge that they may be added in the near future diamonds.

According to a recent issue of the Geological Journal, nearly all the leading Canadian geologists firmly believe that valuable discoveries of diamonds will yet be made.

In 1883 eight valuable diamonds were found in Michigan, and the best geological authorities, after careful investigation, agreed that they came from Canada—probably in the glacial period. They found that the gravel formation in which the stones were found is of the Hudson Bay district. The trend of the glaciers converged in Northern Ontario going south and showed this gravel, which is exactly similar to that of the famous Kimberly diamond mines in South Africa, before them.

It is thought that the diamond bearing gravel may be found in the "New Ontario" district with the opening up of this country.—Brockville Times.

Mr. F. W. Hodson, of the Department of Agriculture, has received orders from the Newfoundland Government for Leicester, Cotswolds and Shropshire sheep, and one order from the Quebec Government for Shropshire sheep.

DON'T WANT RESIDENCE CLOSED.

Varsity Graduates Condemn the Proposed Change.

Toronto, Aug. 4.—Old graduates of Toronto University who spent their college days in residence are up in arms at the action of the College Council in closing the University residence. A meeting was held at the Resin house last evening to protest against the proposed abolition, and it was decided that a meeting of convocation be called at an early date as possible to consider the residence question and other matters affecting University College and the University of Toronto.

Several letters were received on the subject, those from the following gentlemen being read:—Mr. Michael Kingsmill, Q. C., James Chisholm, of Hamilton, Colonel W. N. Pond, of Belleville, and Professor Golden Smith.

ONTARIO IS HEALTHY.

The Death Rate Much Lower Than any Other Country.

Comparison with the figures of other countries shows Ontario to be very healthy. During the past six months there were 12,444 deaths, or a rate of 10.9 for every thousand of the population. In 1897 the rate was 12. In England and Wales there were 17.1 deaths for every thousand; in Holland, 16.9; in Ireland, 16.6; in Austria, 20.4; in the State of Maine, 16.07; Connecticut, 17.5; and New Hampshire, 18.4.

Consumption caused far more deaths than other diseases. In Ontario for the six months, tuberculosis was the cause of 1,278 deaths.

Hastings County Good Roads

Madoc Review.—A correspondent who recently wheeled all the way from Montreal to Madoc on his bicycle strongly asserts that on the whole journey in no other section did he find the roads in as perfect a condition as in our own county of Hastings, excepting perhaps the short distance from Prescott to Brockville, which is still under the old toll gate system. This speaks well for our County Inspector Mr. Vankleek, and we deem it only fair to let the public know by comparison what a competent administrator he is.

Serious Accident.

Madoc Review.—Friday evening last Mrs. William Young and a visiting friend, Mrs. Dunn, met with a serious accident while being driven by Mr. Young near Muller's Corners. The three were in a buggy and it appears the horse, a young colt, became frightened and ran away, throwing the occupants out. Mrs. Young had a leg and Mrs. Dunn an arm broken, while all were in addition considerably bruised and shaken up.

Her Injuries Serious.

Mrs. John Bean, a reporter of whose injuries by falling down cellar was published in these columns last evening, is, in a very serious condition. The last yet received word from her is that she is not recovering consciousness, except in one or two momentary instances, and her medical attendant says her case is a grave one.

It Cost Hugh $2.

The police last evening received a call from Albert st., stating that a man under the influence of liquor was received about in a careless manner. Officer Hays proved to be Hugh Gribbin, of Tyndens, whom he brought to the station. In passing Hotel Quinte Hugh was very anxious to stop there, telling the officer that he usually put up there, but, of course, the owner knew better. This morning the Magistrate fined him $2 or 30 days.

The Carman in Port.

Kingston Wharf.—The steam yacht Carman, owned by T. S. Carman, of Belleville, landed at Craig's wharf yesterday afternoon. Mr. Carman, family and some working men from the neighborhood of Kingston on April 16, has been discovered sewed up in the body of a cow, which was then buried.

Case Adjudged.

The case of Miss Kerwin, of Tweed, and Mr. H. Geary, as published in yesterday's issue, was to have been argued here this morning before the P.M., but owing to the absence of Mr. A. A. McDonald, for the plaintiff, an adjournment was made for one week.

ACCUSED LAND TO THEM

Jamaican Negroes Violently Oppose the Idea of Annexation to the United States.

Quebec, Aug. 3.—Dr. G. Courtney

Healdson, of Kingston, Jamaica, is the city on a vacation trip. In speaking of the recent talk in the Jamaica papers regarding the wish of the Jamaican people for annexation to the United States, Dr.

Healdson said that the sentiment was very strong as it had been for some time. "We have," he said, "on the island a population of 700,000, 600,000 of which are pure blooded negroes, and the remaining 100,000 white. Every man who pays over ten shillings a year in taxes is entitled to a vote, and hence the negro vote by far outnumbers the white vote. In Kingston there is a newspaper owned and run by negroes, and considered as the organ of the race. This journal has devoted columns after columns to full and detailed reports of the frequent lynchings of colored men in the Southern States, and the editorial comment on such atrocities has been most severe. As a result of this symphonic campaign, the United States is resented by the negroes of this island as an accursed land. The action of the British Government in failing to continue the expression caused a great deal of loss and dissatisfaction among the planters, both white and black, but otherwise there has never been any complaint against Eng-

Daily Intelligence.

GLENCRAIG WINS THE CUP.

Unsatisfactory Termination of the Sawannah Trophy Match.

Montreal, Aug. 4.—The final race of the series for the Sawannah Cup, for small yachts, which was to have been run on Lake St. Louis yesterday afternoon, ended in a most unsatisfactory manner. The Canadian, the American boat, before crossing the starting line, ran aground on a shoal. Mr. Post, owner of the Canadian, at once entered a protest against the course. The judge ordered the Glencairn to continue on her course across the finish alone.

The sailing committee met two hours on the protest and finally decided that

Amph was not sufficient ground for ordering the race to be re-sailed, and accordingly awards the race to Glencairn.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation so effective as compare with HICK'S Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It cures all cases of cough, colds, and all other parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes with a cause difficulty in breathing, thereby giving relief to the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of HICK'S Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to give the child a cough, cold or hoarse voice, and the Syrup according to directions.

It is never to be good than great—there is no exception.

Dr. H. A. Dorr—Dyspepsia Cures. I, a Great Medical Triumph—Gentlemen—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use NORTON'S Lymphatic Vegetable Diet for Lymphatic Disorders. I was the worst of the kind. For three years I could not eat most and my weight decreased from 120 to 110 lbs. All the food I took, I threw up, and I was unable to take the food. I was entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a good appetite and feel like a new man. I have had thirty-three years of Lymphatic trouble, and in this section how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. I was anxious to try this grand medicine, and I certainly saved my life as I never expected to live when I first commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to tell you of my cure. I have been cured of my Lymphatic trouble, and trust it may be a certain cure for dyspepsia, indigestion, and all other Lymphatic troubles. I have heard of other cases of Lymphatic trouble being cured by the use of this medicine.

Daily Intelligencer.

THE BOYS' BRIGADE IN CANADA.

The Intelligencer has received a circular and leaflet from the President and Secretary of the Boys' Brigade in Canada, which has already made considerable progress in the Dominion, but which at present, it seems, is handicapped by a lack of funds.

As stated in its constitution "the object of the Boys' Brigade shall be the advancement of Christ's Kingdom among Boys, and the promotion of habits of obedience, reverence, discipline, self-respect and all that tends towards a true Christian manliness."

Certainly a most praiseworthy object. Its methods are military drill, gymnastics, exercises, helpful games and sports, coupled with religious and other useful instruction, and in all these the boys are taught that religion is a manly thing and should go hand in hand with work and play. When possible summer camps are held.

The Boys' Brigade movement is strictly un denominational in its character, having companies connected with every Protestant Church, as well as with the Roman Catholic Church. The almost universal testimony of the officers is that it brings boys into the Sunday School and keeps them there, that it increases the regularity of their attendance and improves the discipline of the school; that it fosters in the boys a love for their own church, while it also draws the members of all churches closer together. It also affords a fine field of work for young men, and may have even greater good while trying to help the boys.

Companies may be organized either in connection with a church or school. On the enrollment of 15 boys and the appointment of officers, applications should be made to T. W. Nisbet, Brigade Secretary, Sarnia, Ontario, for a certificate of enrollment. The membership fees are nominal. The cost of the uniform and outfit does not exceed 60c per boy.

The organization aims at enlisting the interest of boys between 12 and 17 years of age, more for purposes of discipline and physical training than for military purposes. By the rules of the organization boys are taught strict obedience to their commanding officers and respect to their comrades. By means of the religious services in which they participate in connection with the church to which they belong, they are brought within reach of religious influences which otherwise they might shun. It may, therefore, be assumed that the movement is one which every good citizen should support.

In order to extend its operations in Canada, the Executive Committee has decided to appeal to the public liberality. At least $2,500 will be required at once for effective work. It was thought at first that the Executive should, by means of an agent or agents, make a general canvass of the Dominion and present the claims of the Brigade movement to those who could reasonably be expected to contribute to its support, but on second thought it was believed that a circular appeal, through the press and by letter, would better serve the purpose. Mr. Byron E. Walker, General Manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Toronto, has kindly consented to act as Treasurer of this special fund, and will acknowledge through the press or in any other way, all money received, by him. It is the intention of the Executive, if the response to this appeal would warrant such an action, to make an effort to organize Companies in every town in the Dominion for the benefit of those boys who have no other facilities equally good for their moral and physical improvement.

We bespeak for the promoters of this good work the cordial endorsement of our

THIS BEAUTIFUL HAIR IS THE RESULT OF CUTICURA AND CUTICURA SOAP.

I have washed my child's head every week since birth, with warm water and CUTICURA SOAP, and the result is a thick, curly, wavy mass of hair, which is the envy of all the children in the neighborhood. I have never seen a child with such beautiful hair. I have used CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP for many years, and I can truly say that it is the best hair dressing I have ever used. It keeps the scalp cool and healthy, and the hair grows thick and strong. I have used it on my own hair, and it has made it as beautiful as the hair of a young girl. I have used it on my husband's hair, and it has made it as thick and strong as the hair of a young man. I have used it on my child's hair, and it has made it as beautiful as the hair of a young girl. I have used it on my own hair, and it has made it as beautiful as the hair of a young girl. I have used it on my husband's hair, and it has made it as thick and strong as the hair of a young man. I have used it on my child's hair, and it has made it as beautiful as the hair of a young girl.

AMELIASBURG LOSES.
County Judge Merrill, in Appeal, Decides That the Bay Bridge is Non-Assessable.

It will be remembered that some time ago the township of Ameliasburg directed its assessor to tax the Bay Bridge, which was done, the value put on the P. Sprague protested against the assessment, but the Court of Revision confirmed it. Thereupon Mr. E. Guss Porter, who appeared for Dr. Sprague, appeared to the County Court Judge, and the case was argued some days ago. This morning Judge Merrill handed down his decision, which was in favor of Dr. Sprague, the learned Judge stating that, as the bridge had been originally built upon Crown property, and the Crown had never parted with its interests, no township had a right to tax it. Clute, Williams and Morden for the Township of Ameliasburg; E. G. Porter for Dr. Sprague.

An Entertaining Firm.
There are few men more wide awake and enterprising than Mr. J. S. McKee, who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in his line. He has the agency for Dr. King's New Discovery, which surely cures Consumption, Croup, and Colds. This is a wonderful remedy that is now producing so much good. HIGHWAYMEN IN HASTINGS COUNTY.

A Young Man of Norwood at the Mercy of Desperate Characters.

Peterboro Review: On Tuesday afternoon Mr. James Morrow, a young man about 20 years of age, who is in the employ of Mr. R. T. Scott, liverman, of Norwood, drove a commercial traveller to Morrow, and on his return between two and three o'clock Wednesday morning reached a rather startling experience.

He states that when about four miles out of Morrow he overtook a rig in which there were three men. It was an open buggy and he could see there were three men in it. Suddenly they drove up and the pole of his wagon almost touched the back of their buggy. All three jumped out, and one of the men caught Morrow's team by the bridle while the other two proceeded to climb into the wagon.

One fellow in a gruff voice demanded his money saying "If you mean we're after money we must have." Morrow hesitated to accede to their demand when one of them seized him by the throat and almost gagged him while the other went through his pockets.

He had about $9 in his own money in one pocket and $2.50 in another pocket belonging to Mr. Scott, and a watch. He says the men searched every pocket and secured every cent he had. They took his watch also but it was not going there it into the wagon.

Morrow says that they attempted to take one of the horses, but changed their mind and jumped into the buggy and drove off, keeping the same road ahead of them all the way to Norwood. When he reached home he and his brother went straight to the residence of Constable Scriber and informed him of the circumstance. The constable came down and patrolled the route for some time but got no trace of the desperadoes.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mr. R. P. Oliva, of Barcelona, spends his winters at Alken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that blood, tones up the stomach, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and vein of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by J. S. McKee, Druggist.

ONE HUNDRED MILES AN HOUR

Startling Speed Made by a Locomotive in England.

Liverpool, Aug. 3.—Recently interesting experiments were conducted with the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company's latest engine of the new design. On the return journey from Liverpool to Southampton the average speed was eighty miles an hour. The one, pulling five of the heaviest coaches, left Exchange station at 2:51 p.m., and passed the seventeenth milepost at three and three-quarter minutes past three (3:17.25). But when taking into consideration the time occupied in getting up speed, and the slow round the Bankhall and Waterloo curves, approximately the highest average speed attained would be close on a hundred miles an hour. Such a velocity is both startling and a marvel.

She Suffered Untold Agony From Stomach Troubles and Sick Headaches—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured Her.

From the Courier, Trenton, Ont.
Some years ago we reported the case of Wm. Pickering, Trenton, being cured of locomotor ataxia. He was not able to move and was confined to his bed for weeks. Upon advice he tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and immediately obtained relief. Her appetite improved, her system grew strong, and she enjoyed active, robust health. We have just learned of another positive cure through using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It is the case of Miss Jessie Way, who has been an acute sufferer from that common foe of humanity and the foundation for many other ills, dyspepsia. For nearly eight years Miss Way suffered from nervous stomach troubles and pains in the stomach. She tried several doctors without any material benefit. A year ago she came to live with a friend in Trenton, Mrs. W. I. Derbyshire, and was so reduced that she could not sit up an hour. She feared her trouble would drive her crazy. She was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She replied that she had used a box before and they had done her no good. It was urged that she should not hope for relief from one box and she commenced the second.

She continued using the Pills throughout the year with the result that she has completely recovered her health. Her appetite is good, she has gained weight rapidly, and is able to attend to all her household duties. She voluntarily offers this testimony as a tribute of gratitude for the benefit she has derived with the hope that others suffering as she has, may be induced to try this health-restoring remedy. Her words are a strong testimony to the correctness of the statements of Miss Way.

Allow me to add that for four or five years the editor of this paper has suffered from an itching rash that attacked all his joints and all the ornaments within reach failed to banish it. He took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills last year and is now well.

FROM REPORT OF GEORGE F. RENDALL, MINING ENGINEER.

"It is a self-evident fact deducible from every report that on this property large bodies of copper ore exist and that hundreds of tons have been shipped of high grade ore.

"That a deposit of this nature can at a very small expense be made to yield handsome profits, from all existing reports, appears not only likely but certain."

"This property is all right and there is all the copper you want here. I think it is the best in Texas and it seems to be well selected as far as the ore goes. It is all in the top of a water shed and the hills crop out here. I think there is oil here because there is coal. Oil has been found at Corsicana. The property is adapted for general farming purposes which seems to be a very profitable here and a town could be hid out on it and a railroad built to Dundee, 12 miles, to a great advantage."

ASSAY OFFICE NOTES.

Steady Increase in Receipt of Samples Sent in for Assay or Analysis.

The statement of laboratory work done at the Ontario Government Assay Office, which is conducted by the Bureau of Mines for the benefit of prospectors desiring cheap and reliable returns in samples, shows a receipt of 145 samples during the month of July. Of these, 94 samples were received for assay or analysis, on which 111 tests or determinations were made, 94 being for the public and 17 for the Bureau of Mines.

The fees for assays, which are nominal, being one-quarter to one-half the regular rates, aggregated $101.10 for the month.

The samples sent in for identification or report on probable value numbered 51 for the month, on which no fees were collected.

The samples came from all parts of the province as far west as Wallington, the majority being from the Sudbury and Parry Sound districts, where there is considerable development and prospecting being done at present. Most of the samples show payable values in nickel and copper. Six iron ores to be tested for smelting quality were received, two being from the hematite deposits in the Michigan district, which will shortly be tapped by the Algoma Central Railway, under construction, and the remainder from Eastern Ontario.

Mr. F. H. Clergue, president of the Lake Superior Power Co., Sault Ste. Marie, controlling the largest wood-pulp mill in America, writes as follows to this effect: "I am much indebted to the efforts of the Government in facilitating the discovery and operations of Ontario minerals through the assistance of a public assay office. I believe that much good will result from it."

S. W. Ekins, graduate of Albert College, is engaged as second assistant in the laboratory.

This preparation is taken internally, 50 cents a bottle, containing ten days' treatment. For sale at all drug stores.

A WARM WELCOME.

A Paris, Ont., Paper, gives the "Glad Hand" to a Belleville Boy.

Speaking of his arrival in Paris, the Transcript says: "The new general secretary for the Y.M.C.A., Mr. W. B. Dwyer, of Belleville, arrived on Monday evening and accompanied by his wife and family, to the Y.M.C.A. building, where he was received by the Y.M.C.A. committee. Mr. Dwyer, who filled a responsible position at Belleville, comes to Paris highly recommended. He has been connected with church and Sabbath school work for years, and has been closely associated with the Y.M.C.A. since the establishment of that association in Belleville in 1903. For the past two years he has been an active lay worker, and has made a special study of association work. Paris is to be congratulated in having such an institution as the Y.M.C.A., and in having such capable men as W. B. Dwyer, W. H. Walker and S. B. Wilson at the head of it. Each in his turn strove manfully, fought earnestly and prayerfully for the young men and boys of Paris. They have been called to larger fields of use, and their influence for good will remain. Mr. Dwyer has come, not to take their places, but rather to take his own place in the hearts of Paris young men. Give him a hearty welcome, open your homes to him and make him feel at home. He will undoubtedly be found to be the right man in the right place, and the Paris association is truly fortunate in having such an estimable man at its head."

Many friends in Belleville wish Mr. Dwyer the greatest possible success in his new undertaking.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mr. P. O. Oliver, of Barcelona, spends his winters at Alcala, Spain. He has been caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Balm, Alameda's great Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain was left him. He says this grand medicine cures all kinds of ailments. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, and gives the system a new vigor. It never gives new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. It weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle costs 25 cents. Sold by J. B. McKinnon, Druggist.

ANXIOUS TO SEE DREYFUS.

People Congregated to Get a Glimpse of the Prisoner.

The Second Day of the Great Trial—Only a Short Session Was Held and No Evidence Was Taken—How the Transfer of Prisoner From Prison to Lycee Is Made—A Dramatic Coup on the Table.

Rennes, Aug. 8.—The police arrangements in vicinity of the Lycee yesterday morning were unexampled, with the exception that as soon as Dreyfus was inside the Lycee, the police cordons were removed, and the few spectators were allowed to circulate freely in the streets around the building.

The court sitting lasted until 11.45, when the court adjourned until to-day. The day passed quietly. There was a much larger crowd than the day before assembled in the hope of obtaining a glimpse of Dreyfus during the few seconds occupied by him in crossing the Avenue de la Gare on his way back from the Lycee to his prison.

At the conclusion of the sitting the crowd, numbering about 2,000 persons, composed partly of sightseers, was allowed to pass freely before the Lycee a few moments before Dreyfus entered.

Mr. Wilhelm Was Blown.

Then the chief of gendarmes made a sign to his assistant, who blew a whistle. Before the shrill sound had finished, the chief of gendarmes had a number later a strong detachment of mounted gendarmes, followed by gendarmes on foot, galloped in the avenue from a side street, wheeled round, and divided into two detachments, stretching across the road in front of the Lycee. The horsemen rode on the sidewalks, clearing everybody out. Even the newspapersmen (dressed away).

A detachment of infantry, headed by a bugler, dashed up to the Lycee and formed across the Lycee from the door of the Lycee to the eastern gate of the Mantionment.

Everybody Driven Away.

The soldiers were stationed shoulder-to-shoulder, facing outward, and toward the spectators, who were crushed behind it to a number of gendarmes, a hundred yards away. Soon afterwards somebody shouted, "Here he is!" and the spectators, many of whom had come from neighboring towns expressly to see Dreyfus, craned their necks and stood on tiptoe, hoping to catch a view of the famous prisoner as he proceeded and followed by gendarmes, and with a certain of gendarmes leading him, he passed through the lane of soldiers, with a quick military step, eyes front and with soldierly bearing, but with the slight, jerky movement of the left arm and shoulder of the continental soldier accustomed always to resting his hand on the hilt of his sword. Dreyfus, however, being under arrest, is deprived of his sword.

Just Got a Glimpse.

The crowd just perceived the prisoner's head and shoulders as he passed by the space between the heads of the infantry, whose red berets, dark-blue tunics and bright red baggy trousers, threw a band of color across the roadway. Less than a minute later, however, he was gone, and the roadway, and immediately after Dreyfus reached the wall of the Mantionment, where he was thrown away and he disappeared within.

The shrill whistle was again heard, the gendarmes, whose red berets, dark-blue tunics and bright red baggy trousers, threw a band of color across the roadway. Less than a minute later, however, he was gone, and the roadway, and immediately after Dreyfus reached the wall of the Mantionment, where he was thrown away and he disappeared within.

PREMIER DENIES INTERVIEW

Never Received Invitation From Authorities to Visit Chicago.

Bills Dropped This Year—Announcement by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, announcing that the Government had decided to drop the bill to amend the Franchise Act, and the bill to amend the Act Respecting Judges of Provincial Courts.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 8.—In the House yesterday Sir Wilfrid Laurier announced that the Government had decided to drop the bill to amend the Franchise Act, and the bill to amend the Act Respecting Judges of Provincial Courts.

Mr. Clarke Wallace suggested that the majority and minority reports of the public accounts committee be both printed, but on the request of Sir Wilfrid Laurier he allowed the matter to stand until the Premier had an opportunity of reading the minority report.

Mr. Laurier again referred to the alleged interview of the Premier with Mr. Fitzpatrick, of the Washington Treasury Department, in which Sir Wilfrid was quoted as declining to visit Chicago in the fall, and as refusing to advise the Government to go, for fear that he might be insulted by thoughtless persons.

Premier Denies Interview.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said: Let me say one word, not because the hon. gentleman has brought the matter to the attention of the House, but because the hon. gentleman has taken a wrong view of the matter. There has been an interview published in a Washington paper, attributing words to me of a certain character which the hon. gentleman has just mentioned. I did not take any notice of that interview, and I do not propose to do so. This interview was not published by me. It was an interview with a reporter of a Washington paper, a Mr. Fitzpatrick, and Mr. Fitzpatrick has put words in my mouth for which I do not hold myself responsible. If I wish to say anything to the public, I will say it myself and in my own way, not through any other person. I have received no invitation, so far, from the Chicago authorities to take part in the demonstration proposed to be held in the month of October. I understand that one is coming; in fact, I have been informed unofficially this morning that one is coming, and I shall certainly treat it with the courtesy that is due to it, not only because of the position I hold, but on account of our relations with our neighbors.

Militia Members' Indemnity.

Mr. Bourassa entered a vigorous protest against the bill which provides that those members of Parliament who belong to the militia shall receive their seasonal allowance during the time they are in camp. Mr. Bourassa thought it unfair that men should receive their seasonal allowances while they were away from the House on military duty. He could not see any reason for thus encouraging the military spirit in Canada. The bill passed despite Mr. Bourassa's opposition.

The Seed Grain Debit.

On the bill respecting securities for seed grain, Mr. Strathcona moved an amendment, providing that the Government should transfer the indebtedness to the Northwestern municipalities, which should be repaid by the Government. The amendment was lost by 17 to 10.

Reading a Third Time.

The following bills were read a third time and passed:

To amend the Yukon Territory Act.

To amend the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal.

Respecting the Quebec Harbor Commissioners.

To amend the Weights and Measures Act.

Blunder Twice.

On the motion to grant a supply Mr. George Taylor again brought up the binder twine question, moving an amendment to the effect that the methods of the Government in disposing of the binder twine factory at Kingston, Ontario, is not in the best interests of the farmers.

A general debate sprang up, which lasted until 11 o'clock, when the House adjourned. The amendment was lost, 50 to 31 against.

The House then went into supply and will probably stay very late.

THE SENATE.

Last night there was a division in the Senate on a motion by Senator Miller to give the bill increasing the salaries of the Ministers of Customs and Inland Revenue from $5,000 to $7,000, and only 29 Senators voted, 14 for and 15 against.

THE GOVERNMENT CENSURED.

Conservative Minority Report in the Public Accounts Committee.

The Conservative minority of the public accounts committee presented two minority reports yesterday morning. The first was respecting the prosecutions for alleged election frauds in the Province of Ontario, and the second minority report reported the following six reasons for censure:

The committee are of opinion that the Government have been guilty of the following six reasons for censure:

First, for withholding from Parliament during the session of 1908-9, the report of the committee on the carrying on of the prosecution.

Second, for paying any portion of the cost of the prosecution.

Third, for not paying the accounts of justice and counsel fees.

Fourth, for secretly undertaking, without the sanction of Parliament, to pay the cost of the prosecution.

Fifth, for undertaking without the knowledge of Parliament to make an election in the first opportunity.

Sixth, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

The Conservative minority on the public accounts committee also presented a minority report on the case of Mr. H. P. Costigan and Co. Donnelly & Co. The report is very large, reciting all the facts of the case, and concluding that the minority is of opinion that the Government are guilty of the following six reasons for censure:

First, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Second, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Third, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Fourth, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Fifth, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Sixth, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Seventh, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Eighth, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Ninth, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Tenth, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

Eleventh, for not making an election in the first opportunity.

was inclined to attach great importance to the Premier's remarks. Mr. Choate added that the negotiations were progressing, "but," he explained, "they are always slow, and I can say nothing at present as to their status."

Strathcona Defends Laurier.

Regarding Mr. Choate's statement, the Canadian high commissioner, Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, said to a representative of the Associated Press:

"Sir Wilfrid Laurier's remarks were merely a figure of speech and not a political dodge, as intimated by Mr. Choate. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had not decided to do anything, nor did he in any way mean to challenge the United States. No sensible man could regard war as possible, but in his endeavor to have the question settled, the misinterpretation of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's remarks by the United States press is unfortunate. It is a bitter-sweet, though closely allied to Great Britain. As such, he must protect his rights. He merely asks for an equitable settlement through arbitration, following the United States' lead. We believe President McKinley is thoroughly in earnest in his endeavor to have the question settled. The misinterpretation of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's remarks by the United States press is unfortunate. WORK FOR MR. HARDY.—ELECTION FRAUDS.

By the unseating of Mr. Macmillan in West Elgin full justice has not been done. An election trial under our provincial law never brings to justice or punishes all the offenders.

When the question of the right of the member to sit has been determined, the remedy to him, that, unfortunately, ends the trial.

Mr. Macmillan threw up the sponge, and when that was done the trial could go no further, as its purpose, according to law, had been accomplished, namely the vacating of the seat, though Mr. Macmillan declares that the following crimes were committed:—

Bribery with large sums of money. Persecution by officers brought in to steal the votes of qualified voters. Ballot stuffing.

The fraudulent marking of ballots for Mr. Macmillan.

The fraudulent manipulation of ballots that had been marked for Mr. Macmillan.

Prudent counting of ballots in several divisions.

The fraudulent personation of deputy returning officers.

The punishment of those crimes is a task facing with the Attorney General, who is the representative of law and order in the province.

To Mr. Hardy the people look for action that shall complete the work which the trial commenced; yet he has not moved in the direction of punishing the criminals, but will they not look in vain?

In the South Ontario election case crimes of equal magnitude were committed, and not a step has been taken to bring the guilty parties to justice.

Mr. Justice O'Leary expressed himself as much dissatisfied with the result of the South Ontario election; and Mr. Justice Tuckwell said:—

"It may be for the benefit of the public that the main actors in the wrong-doing should be discovered and punished. It is desirable that they should be, and in the present case it is manifest that those who controlled the fund and manipulated the transactions are not brought before the court, and will probably escape punishment unless some other process is instituted. But we are powerless. The statute gives us no inquisitorial powers, and it is not placed at our command any of the investigation, and when the stage has been reached when it is apparent that the seat must be declared vacant, it seems to me that it would be better to continue the trial at the expense of the parties immediately concerned."

In view of the exposure of a blot-stuffing, once being made in Ottawa in the West Huron investigation, should not these crimes be made penitentiary offences?

Literary Notes.

The Designer for September is replete with dainty fashions suitable for the autumn. "Trimmed Skirts" are given with illustrations, and are most attractive for fall wear. Charming pictures of the same tell of descriptions of the fashions, and also the little folk, just how to wear them.

Also the little folk, just how to wear them. Apart from these pages, which are devoted to feminine adornment, the number of the Designer contains Florio, Tasting, Knitting, Crocheting and Quilting. Work, Photographic Helps, Two Short Stories, A Continued Story, A Little Comedy for the Stage, A Play, a chapter on "Old Furnishings," an "Introduction of 'For Health and Beauty' explaining simple Massage, the opening of a new business, and a line of illustrations, illustrated, Hints for Housekeepers, and, last but not least, receipts for twenty-five different Ways of Cooking Apples. In its own particular line of illustrations, the September Designer easily takes the lead.

JARGON OF THE STAGE.

English Obscure as the Lingo of the American Baseball Field.

Pretty nearly every profession boasts a vocabulary of its own, and the theatrical profession is not the least boastful in this matter. There is a neatness and precision about the language of the stage which does not characterize that of any other institution.

What, for instance, could be more descriptive of the voice of a man in general sense in reference to small audiences, but strictly it means that an audience was too large enough to render receipts sufficient to pay the bill for the evening's lighting.

Notable.

Some of the sentimental considerations that may influence an elector are suggested in this anecdote from a new book, "The Life and Times of a Politician."

A political candidate, on paying a second visit to the house of a doubtful voter, accompanied by a friend who was very pleased, somewhat surprised, on learning from the elector that he would support him.

"I thought you were against me," said the elector.

"Sure, I was at first," rejoined the politician. "When the other day you called here and stood by that noisy and talked for half an hour you didn't judge me an idiot."

After he had gone away, says I, I got to thinking how well reached my hand over the rail and scratched the pig's back till he lay by his double chin, and I made up my mind that this was a man who was so sensible as to win a fellow creature I wasn't the boy to vote again."

Incites Irreverent Comment.

Literary, both the time and the place, he had no time to spare. He had no time to spare. He had no time to spare.

A thousand books her eyes consumed in Sanskrit, Latin, Greek, Sanskrit, Hebrew, French, Chinese, Hindi, modern and antique.

She would not even stop to read. Without a pause she read. And when her husband wanted her to read, she never went to bed.

Her house was filled from wall to wall with all the latest books made. And when her husband wanted her to read, he had to use a spade.

At last the great day came around for which she had waited and planned. Before the club she stood, her paper in her hand.

Then after all her weeks of toil and her long wait, she had the awful nerve to make this introductory paper:

"You must excuse my paper, for I'm so ashamed of it. But, honestly, I've been too rushed to study up a bit."

He had proposed to the idol of his heart, but things failed to come his way. "Do you know," he said as he was leaving her presence forever, "that you are winning my heart from my bosom?"

"Possibly," she answered coldly, "but it's either that or marry you and wring the bosom from your shirt in after years."

A CURIOUS RAILROAD

IT IS ONLY 20 MILES LONG AND HAS 35 SHARP CURVES.

This Road is the Crookedest One in the United States, and One of Its Curves is Said to be the Shortest Railroad Curve in the World.

"This is the crookedest railroad in America."

The train on the 20 miles of narrow gauge road from Jerome, Jamaica, A. T., to the mining camp of Jerome was just entering the hills from the plain and was beginning to climb and go on as it rounded sharp curves when a passenger leaning forward from his seat and projected his remark into the ear of a reporter for The Star.

"There are 85 curves, one of them 45 degrees, and 34 of them 40 degrees on this road," the voice continued, "and they are nearly all on 3 per cent grades. It's the crookedest railroad in America."

The speaker seemed to get considerable satisfaction out of this statement and repeated it several times. The reporter did not offer any dissenting opinion, for there was no room for argument. This road from the Santa Fe system up to Jerome, where W. A. Clark's great Verde copper mine is situated, is indeed a marvel in its construction and the difficulties it overcame.

Leaving the Junction on the plain, it runs direct on comparatively level ground to the hills. It apparently runs against a mountain and ends at the foot, but does not, for when the foot of the hill is reached the track dodges in at the mouth of a narrow gulch and commences its climb to the summit, on the other side of which lies Jerome.

In building this road no attempt was made to follow other than the grades provided by nature. The bed of the river is cut out of the side of the hill. Just enough dirt is cut away to fill out the grade to a sufficient width. There is not a single cut on the entire line except on the very summit, where a rocky ledge is parted to allow of the passage of the track.

The engine, which is built for mountain climbing, only takes nine cars in its make, some of these being empty and all of them freight except the rear car, which is a short combination passenger and baggage coach. The train crew has little time for loafing, for the brakes must be closely guarded. The conductor frequently looks up the mountain as an unnecessary freight and ticket taking at a bare, for his work is that of handling a heavy freight train upon steep grades and that is not conducive to sociability or good nature.

The puffing of the engine and the jolting strain on the cars raise the story at the beginning of the climb up the hill. The train hugs the hill down below the river and creeps on a gully, but to turn around at the head and come down on the opposite side but a few hundred feet from the track gained a few minutes before at the cost of so much labor.

The head of each gully is crossed upon a wooden trestle. From the car window the passenger can see the trestle and the other side seen to run parallel to the one the train is on and but a few yards away. Of a sudden an engine comes into view going in the opposite direction to the passenger coach. It needs a look out of the window to convince the passenger that this engine is the one pulling his train, for it is, and the middle cars in the train are on one of the wooden trestles, which cross the heads of these gullies.

One of these is a 45 degree curve, claimed to be the shortest railroad curve in the world, and whether this is true or not it does not seem possible that a curve could be any sharper and the cars not tip over as the engine pulled them around it. The train only creeps around this curve. The engine puffs, snorts and hisses, and the cars are pulled around it and barely moves. The cars nearly touch each other at the corners. The wheels groan and shriek as the fingers rub the rails. The whole train seems to be in such treatment with all the voice it has and the engine seems about to pull the cars off the track in its effort to get them around the curve.

The train crew makes this trip twice a day, no matter how long they have been on the road they look tired and anxious each day until this curve is safely passed. When the last car is over the curve, the train is in the hands of the rattle and puffs in a sort of care free manner and the freights bump along as though they were not around any more.

Of a sudden the summit is reached. A short curve takes the track through a cut on the apex. The train again swings around the point of the mountain and begins to slide down hill. The panorama spread before the eye at this point is tremendous. Far in the distance rise the snow covered peaks of the San Francisco mountains, over 12,000 feet high. In the foreground is the vast expanse of the Big Verde. Miles and miles to the bottom of this valley it seems to be. The hills are barren, the valleys are barren, not a tree or a blade of green anywhere. If an inferno burned out and left to itself.

Not for long, however, for straight ahead of the train hangs a blue haze, the smoke and fumes from the roaring copers. The train is in the air. This is real living inferno. Figures of men far down the hillside look like ants as they stand and buildings of the Verde mine remind him he has reached his journey's end.

To come 18 miles as the crow flies the railroad has been built for it cost nearly $400,000 and is kept busy all the time feeding its valuable freight to the Santa Fe system. The road itself was a daring venture. The engineering is unique, the construction is like that of no other road in the country, and its sole occupation is handling the business which brings the greatest cash income derived from a single property to any one man in the United States.

An Agreeable Cure.

Doctor—Well, my fine little fellow, you have got quite well again. I was sure that the pills I left you would cure you. How did you take them—in water or in cake?

Small Invalid—Oh, I used them in my soup.

London Kill Me Quick.

On Saturday night in the London streets one meets numbers of men walking automatically, their teeth chattering, their lips frozen, their hands numb, and their feet like lead.

They look frozen, but suddenly fall like logs. It is a miracle that they do not fracture their skulls on the pavement. To these men, in the bars of virtuous England, has been dispensed for the sum of one penny a pint of an atrocious mixture composed of the dregs of bottles and casks of gin, whisky, absinthe, etc. I do not know the name of this horrible concoction, but I have seen its terrible effects.—Paris Petit Journal.

English Girls Growing Thinner.

It has been noticed again and again that the type of English girl seen abroad is growing taller, slimmer, thinner, more thoroughbred in looks and gait, and by a subtle kind of selection is showing in the park a preference for a horse that possesses very much her own characteristics.—London News.

BAY BRIDGE ASSESSMENT.

The Right to Levy Taxes is Still an Open Question.

In our issue of the 5th instant reference was made to the judgment of Judge Morrill, of Pictou, allowing the appeal of Dr. Sprague in reference to the Amelburg assessment on the Bridge, in the following words:

"The learned Judge stating that as the 'Bridge had been originally built upon 'Crown property, and the Crown had 'never parted with its interests, no town-ship had a right to assess it."

We had not seen the extended judgment at the time, but now have a copy before us, from which it appears that the effect of the Judge's ruling was incorrectly stated in our former issue. The learned Judge came to no conclusion whatever upon the above point, but decided—the matter upon the point that he had no evidence of the cash value of the materials composing that part of the Bridge situated in the Township of Amelburg, as, under the authority of a judgment of the Court of Appeal in favor of the Bell Telephone Company, it was held that where a property lies in different municipalities it cannot be assessed as a going concern. This point was not raised by the appellant's counsel and the only evidence given was that of the assessor and the evidence of Dr. Sprague to the amount he had paid for the Bridge. It would therefore appear that so far as the Township of Amelburg is concerned, the right to assess the Bridge is still an open question.

THE SATURDAY MATINEE.

A Fair-Sized Audience at the Last Performance of "The Brownies."

The last performance of "The Brownies in Fairyland," was, perhaps, the most enjoyable of the series. The youngsters were full of high spirits, and were as sprightly and gay as could be. Everybody is agreed that the three performances by our clever boys and girls were sources of pleasure to all concerned, both performers and audience. Manager Adams deserves the thanks of our citizens for getting this excellent attraction for our local playgoers. Everybody would be pleased to see the same ladies and gentlemen present another attraction of the same kind.

Not only light but superior to so called ten dollar coats. Our price $8.00.—QUINN & ROBERTSON.

CAUGHT AT LAST.

One of the Bad Boys Has Been Arrested and Gets a Suspended Sentence.

For some time past the police have been endeavoring to lay their hands upon two lads named Chas. Folly and Harry Cronk, both of whom were wanted on a charge of assault. Last night Sergt. McCreghan arrested the former and at the court this morning he was found guilty of assaulting a lad named Frank Compo. He was given a suspended sentence of a fine of $1 or 15 days. A brother of Folly, named Edward, is wanted on a charge of larceny. Crnk is said to be working at Deseronto.

DEATH IN THE STORM AT PICTON.

Young Man Killed by Lightning and His Brother and Hired Man Struck Also.

Pictou, Ont., Aug. 12.—This morning about 6 o'clock a severe thunder storm of short duration swept over this locality. A young farmer named Harry Warden, aged about 19 years, living about 8 miles from here, near Deseronto, while in the field drawing in grain, was struck and instantly killed by a bolt, which threw the brother, the hired man and the team to the ground.

No Right to Ouligin.

The woman who is lovely in face and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Life Line Kidney Pills, the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. They are strong purges, leigos, and give a healthy, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman (a run down invalid). Only 25c at J. S. McKeown's Drug Store.

An Anxious Mother.

Mrs. Jas. Down, who resides on Pictou, reported to the police at an early hour on Sunday morning that her young son on Saturday evening left the house with the intention of going to the river to bathe, and had not returned home. The mother's anxiety was not lessened later in the day when the boy came home.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Were Held Yesterday Morning at Emmanuel R. E Church.

An Ottawa Divine Preaches an Eloquent Sermon to a Large Congregation.

A large congregation gathered at Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal Church yesterday morning, the occasion being memorial services for the late Rev. J. Simpson Trotter, for six years Rector of that Church. Rev. W. J. Gilliland, Rector of the church, read the prayer, and Rev. Jas. Todd, of Ottawa, read the lessons and preached the sermon. The hymns were appropriate to the occasion, and during the offertory the choir sang an anthem, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

As a preface to his sermon Rev. Mr. Todd said that a year ago it was his privilege to preach in Emmanuel Church, and he remembered vividly the impression then made on him as he saw Rev. Mr. Trotter sitting in the front seat of the church, and thought of his long and chequered career in the service of the Master. It was a blessed privilege for any clergyman to preach the memorial sermon of a man like him. The text was taken from the 24th chapter of St. Luke, the 39th verse.

"Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself; handle me and see; for a spirit hath flesh and bones, as ye see me have."

There is, said the preacher, no more pathetic scene in this world than a new made grave, and yet it is a blessed sight, for it lifts our hearts to heaven; it is the mournful terminus of human life, and yet it is full of joy, for it carries our thoughts to that other grave—the sepulchre of Jesus. The consolation that comes to mankind from the resurrection of Jesus Christ was a great comfort to us this morning. The climax of all blessed things is the cross and the sepulchre of Jesus. Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more, so even we, if we follow after him, shall not die again, but shall live forever. The resurrection of Jesus Christ was a prophecy, for as Jesus saw resurrection so shall we, as the Master rose to fuller and grander life, shall we, as he cast away his captive, so shall we, if we follow in his footsteps, exclaim, "Oh death, where is thy sting? Oh grave, where is thy victory?"

The preacher then, in elegant and touching words, gave a biography of the deceased clergyman, telling of his earnest and self-sacrificing life up to the time when, in October last, he departed from Belleville, leaving, as he said, "a most affectionate congregation and Sunday school."

His anchor in life and death was the cross of Jesus Christ. May God comfort the stricken wife. While we sorrow for the departed, we all look forward to a glorious resurrection. Many of the congregation were deeply touched when the young minister delivered his eloquent oration: "Though the death of any man can be as great a tragedy as the sea of time, there are those in all quarters of the world, of all branches of God's church, who will never forget and ever cherish the memory of John Simpson Trotter."

Only 25c a box. Cures guaranteed. Sold by J. S. McKeown, druggist.

IS YOUR NAME INCLUDED?

Conservative Electors Urged to Inspect the Voters' Lists.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—The time is almost up for the revision of the voters' lists, and Conservative voters throughout the province are being warned to inspect the lists in the offices of the municipal clerks and see that their names are included. It is suggested that in these days of organized ballot-stuffing and general corruption the Liberal machine is not likely to hesitate at leaving the names of opponents of the voters' lists. Therefore the local offices of the Conservative organization are being urged to look well to them.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. L. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hamilton, Mo., who had a wonderful escape from a fatal death. In telling of the escape he said: "I was taken to a hospital for a fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave me strength. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say enough for the great value of this medicine (the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble). Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. S. McKeown's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed."

Marine Notes.

The str. Alexandria and the Corcan were in port on Saturday. The former went to Rochester and the latter to Toronto.

The schooner T. P. R. is in with a load of bunch wood.

A large quantity of poles for the extending of the C.P.R. telephone line to Francon arrived per schooner on Saturday.

The str. Armenia was to day on the route of the Ella Ross.

Telegraph Office Closed Up.

The work of building the double track on the line of the G. T. R. at Murray Hill, and also cutting down the heavy grade there, is about completed. The telegraph station there has in consequence been closed up.

Large Shipments.

Messrs. W. W. Chown & Co. last week made a shipment of 400 dozen stovepipes to Dawson City. They also shipped a large quantity of lanterns and other goods to Winnipeg and to points in British Columbia.

A Correction.

In the item on Saturday in reference to Mrs. A. Jones, accused of larceny, we stated that she pleaded guilty. It should have read "not guilty."

YESTERDAY'S CHURCH SERVICES.

A Brief Resume of What Was Done in Some City Pulpits.

There was a large congregation present at the Baptist Church last evening to hear the Rev. Dr. Kory, of Norwich, Conn., preach. The Rev. gentleman is visiting in this City and before commencing his discourse referred to the pleasure it gave him of having the opportunity of speaking to a Belleville audience. He stated that although this was his first visit to the beautiful City he had been more than delighted with it. His receipt had been far beyond his conception and his stay thus far had been one of continual pleasure. He wished the City every success. He chose for his text a familiar scripture passage, namely, St. John, 3d chap., 16th verse: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." The discourse was not only eloquent but at times very pathetic. The divine referred to God's love as the supreme love and divided it into three classes, namely, descending love, seeking love and seeking love, all of which were minutely defined. The discourse was listened to with rapt attention and was highly appreciated by all who attended. During the service Mr. H. Bryant sang a solo very acceptably.

TABERNACLE.

At this place of worship yesterday large congregations were present, especially at the evening service. Evangelist Collycott and Mrs. Collycott were present and conducted the services, which were of an inspiring nature. The singing of the former, with guitar accompaniment, was listened to with rapt attention and was very pleasing. Mrs. Collycott (nee Miss Andrews) is well known in the City.

JOHN ST. CHURCH.

At the John St. Presbyterian Church yesterday Rev. Dr. Dyke, of Kingston, occupied the pulpit and preached two sermons which were very acceptable. Good congregations were present at both services.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

Rev. Father Connolly conducted all the services at St. Michael's yesterday. In the evening Miss Mary McHugh, of Deseronto, Iowa, sang "Ave Maria." She has a beautiful soprano voice and it was heard to much advantage.

The Best $5 Suit.

You may not think $5 is much to get a suit for a man, but the Oak Hall has a new line to sell at this price that is the best ever offered in Belleville. A neat pattern, all wool, best farmers' satin linings and perfect fitting. Suppose you see it.

Police Court.

ORGAN CASE.

Mrs. Wm. Bird was charged with fraudulently appropriating an organ, the property of Mr. J. L. Biggar. It appears that the instrument was placed in Mrs. Bird's house by a firm in which Mr. Biggar is interested and it is alleged that it was removed before being paid for. Mrs. Bird swore that the organ was taken away, but she did not know by whom. Case enlarged until Friday. C. D. Macaulay for plff. and W. J. Diamond for deft.

DISORDERLY HOUSE.

Mrs. Henry Stady was arrested this morning on a charge of keeping a disorderly house. After some evidence had been taken the case was enlarged.

OBITUARY.

MRS. CARRIE MURRELL. The Englewood Chicago Eye, in its issue of the 5th inst., contains a lengthy obituary notice of the late Mrs. Carrie Murrell and infant babe, who died on that day. The deceased were the wife and child of Mr. Victor A. G. Murrell, a former Belleville boy, brother of Mrs. (Ald.) P. C. Jones, of this City. Mrs. Murrell, whose maiden name was Barton, was born in Youngstown, N.Y., where the internet took place on Monday, 7th inst. The Eye states that Mr. and Mrs. Murrell were residents of Englewood for one year, but in that brief time they surrounded themselves with a large circle of friends and the sad death awakened universal expressions of sorrow. Deceased was a devout member of the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Murrell is at present in the City, and his many friends will join in extending to him their sympathy in this hour of severe trial.

Collided With the Bay Bridge.

The schooner Eliza Fisher, which unloaded a cargo of coal at the D. & D. Institute on Saturday, passed down the bay light. In endeavoring to pass through the bay bridge she collided with one of the towers. The vessel was slightly damaged, but was able to proceed down the bay.

Stole a Time Piece.

Chief Gunyon, of Deseronto, arrived here this morning, having in charge a named Frederick Parks, who will for the next four months reside at the Central Prison for larceny of a clock. He was tried at Deseronto on Saturday and convicted for the offence.

Large Shipments.

Messrs. W. W. Chown & Co. last week made a shipment of 400 dozen stovepipes to Dawson City. They also shipped a large quantity of lanterns and other goods to Winnipeg and to points in British Columbia.

To facilitate the quick delivery of the newspapers we have decided that in future the carrier boys will collect on Saturday evening only.

It takes time to wait until the door-bell is answered and change made, and when this is repeated on Monday and Tuesday evenings it makes the boy just so much later in finishing his route.

We will therefore request that in future all the customers have their change ready on Saturday night, and delay the boys as little as possible.

The collections which are not made on Saturday will be looked after by our own collector on Monday and Tuesday.

Big Price for Stamps.

Boston, Aug. 14.—Two little pieces of paper, which when originally issued by the Canadian Government were valued at twelve pence each, were sold by auction lately in this city for $1,320. The price was the largest given for any single lot of stamps in the three days' sale which closed to night. All similar stamps of the issue of 1851 are rare, but these two twelve pence stamps are believed to be the only unused ones of the kind printed on laid paper. The stamps were purchased by Mr. Neidhaus, of Hamilton, who sold them same stamps to the company holding the auction and got $1,650 for them.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That suspended sentences in the Police Court may be good things for the prisoners, but they don't cut much figure as a safeguard to the general public.

That the fishing in the Bay of Quinte just now is better than it has been for many years.

That the ambulance should have a set of pneu-matics. For a sick person a long ride in that conveyance is about as pleasant as a visit to a dental chair.

That the healthfulness of Belleville people should be a cause of congratulation just now.

That a subscription should be taken up to have the cannons mounted at Victoria Park. At present they are a source of danger. If a vehicle drove on to them at night and smashed a wheel would the driver or owner not have grounds for damages?

DEPARTMENTAL EXAMS.

Students Who Have Successfully Passed the Ordeal

In the Various Educational Institutions in This City and the Surrounding Districts.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—The reports of the Boards of Examiners in connection with the examinations for commercial special-ists, commercial diplomas, and for the High school and matriculation examinations, Forms III and IV, have been considered by the Educational Council, and the following are the names of the successful candidates at the different centres.

The marks of unsuccessful candidates will be sent within ten days to the principals of High schools or Public school inspectors. No marks will be sent or given to candidates by the department. Certificates of the successful candidates will be sent to principals and inspectors about the 1st of September. Unsuccessful candidates should not appeal until they have consulted the High school principal, after receiving their marks. Appeals to be entertained must be made to the Deputy Minister before the 30th of September.

Passed, under either Form III or IV, implies an examination in the subjects prescribed either under the present or former regulations. The certificates issued will indicate more definitely the character of the examination passed. Candidates awarded these certificates obtained fifty per cent. on the total besides passing in each subject.

Matriculation implies that the candidate has been awarded a certificate of Part II, of junior matriculation, or has obtained pass standing in some subjects of junior matriculation. This certificate has no value as qualifying for a teacher's non-professional standing.

Part II, under Form IV, implies that the candidate passed in the required subjects, either under the present or former regulations, fifty per cent. on the total having been obtained. The certificate issued will indicate more definitely the character of the examination passed.

Honors in matriculation will be awarded to such candidates as submit proof of standing and forward their certificates to the Department for endorsement.

In the case of certain candidates, whose names are reported in the following lists, it will be necessary, before certificates can be awarded, that evidence be furnished (date and centre of previous examinations) to show that the candidate was under the provisions of the former regulations.

A GENEROUS GIFT.

Belleville Public Library Gets $100 as a Gift.

Col. Ponton, as Treasurer of the Belleville Public Library, received this morning from Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Parker, who are at Kewbead, Bohemia, their cheque for $100, as a donation to the Library. This generous gift, following many others, to which the citizens of Belleville are indebted to their distinguished fellow-citizen abroad, is much appreciated at present by the Directors of the Library, as more books were recently needed and the finances did not justify the expenditure. May Mr. Parker's example stimulate others to go and do likewise, and may it also inspire a greater interest in the Library among these citizens, who have at their doors a library of over 4,000 volumes and a well supplied reading room, and yet who do not contribute $2 a year towards its support. The enthusiasm for who interest themselves in the progress and success of the Library will be stimulated by Mr. Parker's continued liberality to greater exertions, and it is hoped that all will co-operate ly not merely spending a good word for, but also by doing and subscribing what each can for the benefit of a public institution of which the City should be proud.

THE LAST RITES.

Obsequies of the Late Mrs. Ann Ray Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Ray took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of Mr. James Ray, at Melrose, Treadwells Township, and was attended by a large concourse of residents. A short service was conducted at the house, after which the remains were taken to the Methodist church, which was filled with sympathizing friends. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Scamman, assisted by the Rev. D. O. McArthur, of the Presbyterian church. The pulpit of the church was tastefully decorated with flowers, and under the casket were a number of beautiful floral offerings. The incense was placed at the altar. The bearers were: Messrs. Thos. Dancy, John Emmans, John McFarlane, Chas. McLaren, G. McKinney and Isaac Easton.

Fair Evidence for Everybody.

No one can doubt the great merit of Police evidence. It is the only evidence that is not in 10 cent bottles, just to give you the opportunity of testing its wonder-ful power over all kinds of sins. This is the best evidence of its efficiency, for every person can try for themselves. Police evidence is a positive (it cannot fail) cure for cramps, headache, cold, neuralgia and the host of pains that afflict the human body. To take good to rub on. Go to any drug store and buy a 10 cent sample bottle. Large bottles 25 cents.

Explanation

At the regular meeting of Mizpah Lodge, held last evening, the following resolution was passed:

Moved by F. M. Clarke, P. G., seconded by Geo. Johnson, P. G.,

That whereas the cap'n of the Wm. Booth did, on the occasion of the Old-fellows' Decoration, on Wednesday last, let tickets and took passengers on the afternoon trips of that boat, contrary to the arrangements made, and causing disappointment to some of our friends to whom complimentary tickets had been issued and which tickets should have been honored, this lodge hereby expresses its regrets that this disappointment occurred, and assures those holding complimentary tickets that the lodge is not inclined to write them off, as it was intended and arranged that the trips of the steamer at one, two and three o'clock should be reserved for Old-fellows and their friends holding complimentary tickets.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have the edge, but one who would be attractive must keep her head, as if she were weak and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her complexion will be sallow, pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It cures nervousness, biliousness, smoothes, sweetens, and gives a healthy complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run-down female. Only 50 cents at J. S. McKenna's Drug Store.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Mr. James Biggs Falls From a Second Story Window

And Hurts Himself Badly—Much Sympathy Felt for the Unfortunate Man.

Shortly before noon to-day an accident befel Mr. James Biggs, who resides on Wilkins st., West Belleville, and at the present time it is difficult to forecast what the ultimate result will be. The unfortunate man is caretaker of the Octavia st. school and at the hour above mentioned was engaged in cleaning a window in the second story of the west side. He was standing upon the sill on the outside and had cleaned a portion of the window and was endeavoring to pull down the upper half, which appeared to stick. In giving an extra hard pull his hands slipped and he was precipitated to the ground below, falling a distance of about 25 feet. The place where he landed is covered with stones, which no doubt assisted in making the injuries more serious. The accident was seen by some neighbors, and as quickly as possible Mr. Biggs was conveyed to his home and medical assistance secured. Upon examination it was discovered that the right arm was broken between the elbow and wrist (a most serious break), two ribs were fractured and the right ankle badly sprained. In addition to these injuries Mr. Biggs complained of internal injuries, and the physician fears the kidneys are injured. At the first examination it was impossible to ascertain the full extent of the internal injuries. Later in the afternoon another and more minute examination was made.

Mr. Biggs' escape from death was almost miraculous. Had he fallen head first he would undoubtedly have been instantly killed, but he fell sideways and put out his right arm for the purpose of protection, which no doubt caused the fracture. Mr. Biggs is a man quite advanced in years, which is a great calamity will retard his recovery. He is a quiet and industrious citizen and his many friends will hope for his speedy recovery.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation so effective as compare with Bick's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all secretions and cleanses the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Patients who have used Bick's find Bick's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, soothes the inflamed throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save their lives, or the lives of their children from such anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of Bick's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and when a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarse voice, give the Syrup according to directions. It is easier to be good than great—there is a supposition.

THE PRESIDENT'S CROWNING WORK

And Monday Was an Anti-Dreyfus Day in the Court-Martial.

The Shooting of M. Labori Took All Life Out of the Proceedings—Ex-President Casimir-Perier Confronted Gen. Mercier and Denounced His Story—A Day of Ups and Downs in Which the Prisoner Practically Marked Time.

Rennes, Aug. 15.—The shooting of M. Labori, leading counsel for the defense, took all the life out of the proceedings, Monday morning's session, and, but for the sympathy the attendance in the court room showed for the prisoner, the case would have been a severe blow to the latter's prospects. The murder, apparently, closed the day for the attempt because it was known M. Labori would crush General Mercier, former Minister of War, with his cross-examination. The news caused an immense sensation in the court room, where the usual audience had assembled, and the court, discomfited the entire and vigorously denounced the author of the story, which, at the time of the court, when the news reached him, suspended the sitting of the court-martial until 7 p.m.

Casimir-Perier and Mercier. When the court-martial was resumed, General Mercier was confronted with M. Casimir-Perier, the former President of France. The latter declared Mercier's story, told on the witness stand Saturday, of the luncheon of 1894, was exaggerated, and complained of the action of the then Minister of War (Mercier) in moving 40,000 troops to the frontier without consulting him. As it was M. Labori's task to take General Mercier's story to the court, the association counsel was quite unprepared for the task, the few questions the latter put were practically of little effect and General Mercier escaped cheaply. Moreover, M. Demange was deeply affected by the attack on his client's integrity, and was quite unable to do himself justice.

M. Demange announced that, though his colleague's wound was not so serious as at first supposed, it would be impossible for the latter to participate in the proceedings. When General Mercier was recalled, in reply to the president of the court he reiterated his belief that Major Count Esterhazy, in spite of the latter's own declaration, was not the author of the letter, the witness declared that he had written on tracing paper and was found in an envelope.

The president asked M. Casimir-Perier to explain the circumstances of the confession Dreyfus is alleged to have made to Captain Lebrun-Renaud. M. Casimir-Perier persisted in his statement of Saturday that he had never received any confession of this kind from his client, Lebrun-Renaud. He added that M. Dreyfus, the then Premier, was present when Captain Lebrun-Renaud called at the Elysee. "Moreover," said M. Casimir-Perier, "there is a letter from M. Dupuy, which I ask may be read."

The letter asserted that Captain Lebrun-Renaud, when questioned by M. Dreyfus, repeated the confession he had sent him to the President to receive a dressing down for his indiscreet disclosures to The Figaro.

General Mercier here interposed, saying: "Captain Lebrun-Renaud spoke to me in regard to the confessions in the Figaro, and I told him that I would testify to go to the President of the Republic."

Mercier's Declaration. Regarding General Mercier's declaration on Saturday last on the witness stand, M. Casimir-Perier declared that General Mercier had no right whatever to intervene in a diplomatic conversation. I would have prevented such interference. I was alone with the President, the Minister, and I declare that the impression I derived from that conversation was one of complete calm. The incident would not have been closed by the framing of a note. We had no telegrams, and the President, in consequence of a note that the Minister referred to Berlin. If there had been any news in regard to the matter on the evening of the 14th, we would not have waited until the 18th to publish the note. There was not a despatch addressed to a friendly power, and the incident to the incident. The incident has been magnified; besides, in the event of diplomatic communications, the President is not communicated with the Minister of Foreign Affairs."

Mercier's Reply. General Mercier replied that he went to the Elysee Palace as Minister of War. He recalled that General de Holsheid testified in regard to the orders received. M. Demange seized upon this declaration, and insisted that General Mercier was alone with the President, and that he had no right to intervene in the conversation. He declared that the President was not communicated with the Minister of Foreign Affairs."

THE "PERSONAL" COLUMN.

The Montreal Witness not long ago had an editorial on "Personal" in newspapers. The writer says:

"We have long known that the general public takes nothing like them. Indeed, it may be taken as a safe working rule that the value of a newspaper is in the inverse ratio to its importance. It is positively interesting to people to read how Mrs. Sherbrooke picked up a pin than to announce that all the Hindoos had turned Mohammedans. There are persons who take the keenest delight in seeing their movements and doings published. With some the appetite for publicity is morbid. There are others who hate it, and many more who think they do, but who will be greatly pleased to be noticed, if only it is made plain that they were the authors of their own publicity. We are inclined to think, if we go to the bottom of things, that most people like to be taken notice of. Certainly most people like to read about other people. It does not matter at all, so far as we are concerned, whether the notice is good or bad, or whether it is of a nature that is pleasant or unpleasant to the person who is the subject of it. We have no objection to a person's being noticed, if only it is made plain that they were the authors of their own publicity. We are inclined to think, if we go to the bottom of things, that most people like to be taken notice of. Certainly most people like to read about other people. It does not matter at all, so far as we are concerned, whether the notice is good or bad, or whether it is of a nature that is pleasant or unpleasant to the person who is the subject of it."

Does not all this go to show that what wise men have been telling the world for ages is true? It is the "little things" of everyday life that make the local newspaper interesting. And in this connection it might be said that it is the duty of everybody living in a city, town or village to help the paper, not merely in the way of subscriptions, for that is the duty of all, but in the way of internal economy no one has the right to meddle, but in the gathering of news. How often a newspaper man meets with a rude reply to a civil question. The influence of a small newspaper may not be very great, but as a producer of sociability it is wonderful. People may not care to see their own name in print, but nowadays when the ability to converse well has become one of the last arts, it is the duty of everybody to cheerfully aid the newspaper men in their efforts to keep all classes of society in touch with each other. The Witness must have a queer set of readers if it speaks from experience when it says that it does not matter whether the printed matter be true or not. Of course, as far as the Witness' editorial columns are concerned, in its discussion of political questions, truth is quite often an unknown quantity, but so far as news is concerned, the experience of most newspaper publishers would be that their readers want the truth first of all.

DO WE NEED A CENSORSHIP? A short time ago the morality department in Toronto inaugurated a crusade against some newspaper editors who had been conspicuously exhibiting obscene literature. Some of the publications were plain, of principle, newspapers have been prohibited. This is very good as far as it goes, but it does not go far enough. What is needed is a censorship over literature of all kinds, chiefly against the yellow-backed novel of the Zola type, which starts out by trying to be realistic, and ends in being nothing but impure in language and filthy in thought. It is the literature of the present day which is responsible for many of the evils which exist in everyday life. A prominent educationist told us the other day that the people realized the number of suggestive and impure books which were read by people in all classes of society there would be some measures adopted to stop the crying evil. The first great agent is example. Next to that comes literature. Young people are influenced for the future by what they read. It is the duty of those in authority in Canada, if they would have the young people of today grow up to be pure and honorable, to see that debasing influences in the form of immoral literature are kept out of the country.

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS. —A two weeks' vacation always appears to be extremely short, and it does the fellow who has just had it. —Philadelphia Record. —A Boston paper says that about 300 women have been licensed to preach. The license has not been taken the trouble to get a license. —Prison papers are very helpful. In the Star of Hope, published at Sing Sing, one convict charges another with extravagance with his knife. One would expect better table manners in such an institution. —It appears that the cannibals of the Solomon Islands did not eat the noble Count Fautsch, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. They probably concluded that the name would choke them. —According to the latest published count there have been 22 lynchings in Georgia between January 1 and August 1, 1899, of which only 7 were for criminal assault. But still the "one crime" delusion continues to do duty. —Perhaps the weakest point of the Dreyfus case is the inability to produce positive evidence pointing out the real culprit. The London Times' story that the traitor was the late Col. Henry and not Esterhazy illustrates this.

—The Kingston Whig man must be a great student of human nature. He says: —A man can do most anything and still be a good husband if he only remembers to kiss his wife and toss the baby every time he comes home. —A scientist has published a lot of statistics which show that married men are more law abiding than single men, and that Montreal, Aug. 14.—"Maple" Taylor refused to fulfil his obligations as a sportsman Saturday, developed a grand streak of loaf and refused to meet the amateur champion, Tom Summersgill, of London, in the world's championship match race of one mile. Taylor, it is said, demanded $150 to ride the race, and would listen to no requests of the L.A.W. authorities, who represent his country like a sportsman and meet the amateur champion. The London Sporting Life announces that the fight between Jeffries and Mitchell is not likely to take place. The reason given by the paper is that it is impossible to find a suitable place for the contest, but this excuse is apparently thin. The wonder of the pugilistic world is how that old bag of wind, Mitchell, manages to keep before the public like he does. London, Aug. 14.—The fifth and last test cricket match between Australia and England was begun at Kensington Oval this morning in the presence of 20,000 spectators. The weather was fine. England won the toss, went to bat, and when an adjournment was made for lunch had scored 149 runs with no wickets down. At the close of play England had scored 435 for 4 wickets down. "I didn't know you were a baseball player, father," "Neither am I, son. Who put that wild idea into your head?" "Why, I heard Uncle Tom say the other day that when you were on a bat you could punish more high balls than any other man he knew." —Brooklyn Life. A remarkable record was established by the brothers Foster playing for Worcestershire against Hampshire, each getting a double century. W. Foster's score was 140 and 172 not out, while R. E. Foster got 134 and 101 not out. Ranjitsingh has scored 2,000 runs in first-class cricket this season, and is the only batsman to do so. Sell off all the old hens and surplus cockles. The best layers are generally intelligent table fowls. Disinfect the poultry house thoroughly with carbolic acid. Note: Hens with tubercles leaves prevent all trouble with lice. The best layers will nearly always be found to be the active ones. In building a poultry house make all the internal arrangements movable so that when the house is to be cleaned they may readily be taken out. The quinea is one of the best of fowls. It feeds its food without reaching out and out only eats the best and most nutritious, but is very quick and very successful in destroying vermin. FACING AN AUDIENCE. THE DEBUT OF ONE GIRL WHO WANTED TO BE AN ACTRESS. Her Experience in the Profession Up to the Moment in Her First Appearance When She Flew From the Stage in Shame and Despair. There's a very large number of performers—would be and others—who are given "trial performances" in the vaudeville theaters to test their ability to suit the patrons. Sometimes these are given in public without previous notice on the program, but not given for the manager's eye alone. A very pretty and ambitious young girl and quite an experience in this way last summer. "You know how poor we were," she said to me when I had covered her to tell of her debut, "and how large every dollar asked. All my friends had praised my earlier recitations as being very good, and I thought I might as well see if I couldn't turn my talent to some account. I applied to the vaudeville theater and was agreed to let me go on that night on condition, except by the sign 'Extra Act,' which was pushed out for the audience to see. "I waited. I was to have $25 a week. "Twenty-five dollars a month would have seemed splendid, and in a great state of excitement I rehearsed my music with the pianist, who tried to flirt with me, and rushed home to carry the good news and fix up a wardrobe for my first recitations. "I was to make my appearance at 9 o'clock, but I got behind the scenes as early as 7, with my sister as dresser. Oh, what a state of excitement we were in! "The 'tip' seemed to have gone ahead but I was an experiment, for I received many quizzical glances from the performers, who were made up and attired as actresses, had corsets, neckties, and garters, gloves, dancers and the like. "At 8:30 the manager tapped at my dressing room door and then, after I had turned down without removing his hat and sized me up rather sourly. "You're never going to wear that skirt, are you?" he asked. "Oh, it's too long! You've got to hit me when you first come on. Cut about three inches off that skirt, and you'll wear it right." "We were both distressed and indignant. "I shouldn't like to do that," I faltered. "You'll have to do a good many things on don't like if you're going to stay in this business," he said shortly as he rose. "I know my audience." "Then he went out. "Let's go home," said my sister, whose face was now very pale. "This is no place for you." "What I could earn here in a week could pay my rent for a month," I said firmly. "Get the scissors, sew, and sew and sew." Then, despite her remonstrances, I turned up two inches of the skirt, stitched it and put it on. Then I looked at myself in a long mirror. "You look lovely," sighed my sister, but, oh, I'm so ashamed! "So was I, but I felt that I'd rather face a friendly audience than an unfriendly landlord, so up stairs I went and stood at the wings waiting my turn in my agony of nervousness. "A tall, pretty contortion dancer had just come off the stage and lay panting for breath on a mass of old carpet. She smiled faintly and asked between her lips: "Thank you." "I shook my head. "You can thank God for that," she whispered. "For it means death. I've got consumption." "Here the stage manager came up. "You turn on the light, when you see 'knockouts' get through. They take two encores. This is their last." "Oh, the agony of waiting for those who would not come! The fear that they would! How they worked! They knocked each other down with barrels, pulled each other over the head with tin trays, tripped and fell over each other and staggered off past me in a state of exhaustion and perspiration that was dire to see. "Then I saw the page draw out two signs and put in two others. "The music sounded—it seemed miles away—and the stage manager gave me a gentle push. "That's you," he said. "Go on, and don't be afraid. Throw it at 'em hard." "No criminal going to execution ever felt as I did when I walked out among those people. "There was a smart round of applause. "That's for the short skirt," I thought and felt like a little girl in a dream. I reached the center of the stage in some way—oh, how can actors and actresses perform on an unaccountable position—and, fixing my eyes in self defense on the pianist, began my recitation. "I was vaguely conscious that the man of music was accompanying me and nodding and winking encouragement at the same time. My voice sounded faint and far away, and I felt myself wondering if I should ever recover from this horrible experience. Then the flutter of a programme distracted my attention, and my eyes fell upon the front row. "There sat four people whom I knew very well indeed—people who had frequently called upon us in better days. They were looking at me and my legs in amazement and horror, their counting with each other and referring to the programme. "The words died on my lips, and I rushed hysterically from the stage, seized a cloak that my sister was holding for me, dashed down stairs in the elevator, out into the street and ran all the way home. I am now a typewriter, and the sight of a poor garden gives me a shiver." —Cincinnati Enquirer. Bacteria. So small are bacteria that it would take, in some cases, as many as 15,000 of them arranged in a row to make an inch. They have different forms, some being round, some oval, some rod shaped, while others are much the shape of a cork atom. POULTRY POINTERS. Give one half of pound grain daily. Oats as a single food will tend to lessen fat. Before fattening geese are rather tender. Sell off all the old hens and surplus cockles. The best layers are generally intelligent table fowls. Disinfect the poultry house thoroughly with carbolic acid. Note: Hens with tubercles leaves prevent all trouble with lice. The best layers will nearly always be found to be the active ones. In building a poultry house make all the internal arrangements movable so that when the house is to be cleaned they may readily be taken out. The quinea is one of the best of fowls. It feeds its food without reaching out and out only eats the best and most nutritious, but is very quick and very successful in destroying vermin.

THE "PERSONAL" COLUMN.

The Montreal Witness not long ago had an editorial on "Personal" in newspapers. The writer says:

"We have long known that the general public takes nothing like them. Indeed, it may be taken as a safe working rule that the value of a newspaper is in the inverse ratio to its importance. It is positively interesting to people to read how Mrs. Sherbrooke picked up a pin than to announce that all the Hindoos had turned Mohammedans. There are persons who take the keenest delight in seeing their movements and doings published. With some the appetite for publicity is morbid. There are others who hate it, and many more who think they do, but who will be greatly pleased to be noticed, if only it is made plain that they were the authors of their own publicity. We are inclined to think, if we go to the bottom of things, that most people like to be taken notice of. Certainly most people like to read about other people. It does not matter at all, so far as we are concerned, whether the notice is good or bad, or whether it is of a nature that is pleasant or unpleasant to the person who is the subject of it."

DO WE NEED A CENSORSHIP? A short time ago the morality department in Toronto inaugurated a crusade against some newspaper editors who had been conspicuously exhibiting obscene literature. Some of the publications were plain, of principle, newspapers have been prohibited. This is very good as far as it goes, but it does not go far enough. What is needed is a censorship over literature of all kinds, chiefly against the yellow-backed novel of the Zola type, which starts out by trying to be realistic, and ends in being nothing but impure in language and filthy in thought. It is the literature of the present day which is responsible for many of the evils which exist in everyday life. A prominent educationist told us the other day that the people realized the number of suggestive and impure books which were read by people in all classes of society there would be some measures adopted to stop the crying evil. The first great agent is example. Next to that comes literature. Young people are influenced for the future by what they read. It is the duty of those in authority in Canada, if they would have the young people of today grow up to be pure and honorable, to see that debasing influences in the form of immoral literature are kept out of the country.

SPORTING NEWS.

Leafs Won the Rubber.

The third baseball match between the Maple Leafs and Dukes took place yesterday afternoon at the Agricultural Park and resulted in a second win for the Maple Leafs. There was a fair attendance and much interest was manifested in the game, as both teams are evenly matched and each had secured a win. In the fifth inning the Maple Leafs secured a decided lead and although the Dukes played hard and well they were unable to defeat their nimble opponents, the score at the finish being 9 to 3 in favor of the Leafs. At times some brilliant plays were made by members of both teams. It was a snappy game, one which never lagged in interest. Mr. Geo. J. Johnson was umpire and his decisions gave general satisfaction. Burns, pitcher for the winning team, pitched an excellent game, striking out men at critical points. Gibson, pitcher for the Dukes, also pitched a good game. Those who constituted the teams and their positions in the field were as follows:

Maple Leafs—Burns, p.; Ross, c.; J. Gibson, 1st b.; Simpson, 2d b.; Thompson, 3d b.; Pearce, ss.; Quincey, lf.; Young, rf.; Marshall, cf.
Dukes—Gibson, p.; Canning, c.; W. Clement, 1st b.; Symons, 2d b.; E. Gibson, 3d b.; Draycott, ss.; Ballany, lf.; J. J. Clement, lf.; T. Clement, cf.
Below is given the score by innings:
Maple Leafs..... 9 2 0 0 3 1 0 0 0 8
Dukes..... 3 2 0 0 2 1 0 1 0 8

Speaks Well for Albert College

Albert College has again been most successful in the Departmental Examinations. In Forms II. and III. over 80% of the candidates were successful, and in Form IV. all were successful. This speaks well for the faithful work of the students and cannot but reflect credit on the Institution, which has always been noted for the interest taken in the students by the teachers and for the pains that are taken in all details of school work.

Sullivan and Miss Yaw.

From London comes the news that Ellen Beach Yaw, the American soprano whose ability to sing the "O" above the high "C" has rather obscured all her other abilities, is to appear in a new opera which is being specially written for her by Sir Arthur Sullivan. It will have in it some songs designed to suit Miss Yaw's phenomenal notes, but will also afford her an opportunity to show that her voice is flexible and pure through its range of four octaves.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That the Trenton Electric Light men are doing a good deal of damage to the Water Works pipe on Coleman st. It would seem that some carelessness is displayed in their blasting operations.

That if a search had been made throughout the City some of the tombstones from the old Danforth st. burying ground might be found doing duty as slabs, doorsteps, etc. A horrible piece of sacrilege, if true.

That some of the spectators at the baseball match nearly developed heart failure in the last inning.

That the cloven foot is being shown again among the guards at Kingston Penitentiary. Some of them are being retired on the ground of "advanced age" and men older than those retired are being appointed to fill their places.

That the high price of cheese and the lack of rain are two reasons for butter being so dear.

That people who go to picnics or excursions should be satisfied with one seat for each person. To sit on one seat and take another for their basket while other people can't get a seat at all is "doing to others as they would like to be done by."

(Special to the Intelligencer.)
Stirling, August 17.—The most serious conflagration which has visited this village in many years started this morning at a few minutes after 3 o'clock in Jerome Conley, sr.'s, cooper shop. Before the fire was extinguished the following buildings were destroyed: Cooper's shop; Jerome Conley, sr.'s; barrel factory of Jerome Conley, jr.; building owned by John Kithie, occupied by John Moore as a marble works; residences of S. Barrows and R. Forde. Jerome Conley, sr.'s, loss was $800, insurance $150; John Moore's marble works was insured for $500, loss $1,500. The remainder of the buildings had no insurance. The building of Mr. E. Parker was severely damaged by smoke and water. Covered by insurance in the Royal.

OBITUARY.

MISS REBECCA GRAHAM.
The subject of this notice died yesterday at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, 8th con. of Thurlow.

The deceased, who was 30 years of age, had been ill for some time. The funeral took place to-day to the Anglican Church at Roslin, conducted by Rev. D. Jenkins, Rector. There was a large concourse of people present at the obsequies.

Match Was a Draw.

London, Aug. 16.—Fifth and last test cricket match between Australia and England, begun at Kensington O. Monday, the Australians, in their first innings, were all out to-day for 372 runs. England, in the first innings yesterday were all out for 376 runs. This score of the English cricketers beating the best previous record in a test match, namely, 551 runs, scored by Australia in 1882.

John R. Gentry Won.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The grandest trotting race that has perhaps ever taken place in this country was pulled off at the Rochester Driving Park at three o'clock this afternoon, and as a result the little bay stallion from Goshen, New York, John R. Gentry, is still king of the light harness races. A better day for a horse race has never gone than to-day, when thousands assembled at the old driving park, the scene of many famous horse events, to see the three great stallions of American turf, John R. Gentry, 2:04; Joe Patchen, 2:04; and Searchlight, 2:04; wage a battle royal for the supremacy.

It Was Enjoyed.

The excursion by the Merritt yesterday afternoon to Deseronto and Glen Island proved one of the most enjoyable of the season. The Merritt started out of the harbor at 2 o'clock sharp, resolved to make a record, and she did it; three hours were given at Deseronto and one at Glen Island, and she landed her passengers at the Rath-bun dock at 9:27. The management had provided a plentiful supply of comfortable chairs, which contributed to the comfort of the numerous passengers. At the request of many who could not go yesterday, and of those on board who desire to go again, the excursion will in all probability be repeated.

BANKS AND BANK BURGERS

Partial Preliminary Hearing in the Anderson Case.

Accountant Mellett Told the Story in Detail About the Loss and Recovery of the $65,000 Bills Were Damaged and Destroyed. Looking upon the Recovery of the Bills as a Matter of Course.

Winnipeg, Aug. 17.—Preliminary hearing in the charges against John Noel Anderson of the theft of $65,000 from the Mellett Bank in October last, commenced at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the Police Court before Magistrate J. H. Howell, Q.C., and W. E. Purdie, J.C., assisted by the learned counsel, T. L. Metcalf and Harold Turner for the defence. Young Anderson appeared in person with his brother, W. S. Anderson from Toronto, and Mr. Driscoll, manager of the Mellett Mfg. Co., his former employer.

The first witness examined was J. F. K. Macbeth, accountant in the bank at the time of the robbery. The accused, he said, had been employed at Mellett since he left on Dec. 18, 1898. He left of his own accord. The valuables were kept in the vault, and inside the vault was the safe where the money was kept. The safe had an outer door with two combination locks. Teller Nelles had one and Manager Phepos the other. One could not open the safe without the other. He further told of the combinations and said that until September 28 the witness and Phepos remained in the sole custody of the combinations, when Phepos gave the combination numbers to Nelles, as he was going away for his holidays. Witness and Nelles opened the treasury vault on Oct. 4 to deposit money which had accumulated in the teller's hands. The total amount supposed to be in the treasury on Oct. 4 was $62,000, the witness giving the amounts in detail. The treasury was not opened by the officers of the bank who knew the combination, between Sept. 28th and Oct. 4th, and Nelles and witness were the only men who knew the combination in the absence of Manager Phepos. The witness and Nelles opened the combination together on Oct. 4, when they found the treasury empty and $62,000 missing. He never saw the money from September 28th until last Friday in the Mellett Bank. The money was damp and mouldy and had a disagreeable odor. The numbers could easily be recognized. He had seen worse bills in circulation than these. Four bundles of three hundred $2,000, were missing from September 28 to October 4th. Galt and Anderson slept in the bank. The key to the combination lock was usually kept in the messenger's desk and was available to the clerk down first in the morning. The witness wrote the new combinations down on an old envelope when he returned from his holidays and placed the same in the inside pocket of an old coat which hung on a hook in the office.

Mr. Nelles, the teller of the bank, said that when Mr. Macbeth was away he was one of the combinations of the safe and treasury and Manager Phepos had the other. When Mr. Macbeth returned he opened the treasury with the combination. The witness put a number of combinations down in writing on the rear portion of the wooden partition of the cash drawer. The drawer was not always locked. Anderson, the accused, used to come into my office for the purpose of stamping vouchers or cancelling cheques, which was part of his duties. I cannot recall any time when he came in when the drawer was unlocked. When he was cancelling cheques in my cage the drawer was not always locked.

The evidence of Messrs. Macbeth and Nelles goes to show that the combinations might have been gotten from Macbeth's coat and from the lead pencil figures in Nelles' drawer.

The case was adjourned till Friday, when Dr. Nelles' evidence will be given.

ANOTHER BANK SENSATION.

Criminal Proceedings Taken Against President Weir of Ville Marie.

Montreal, Aug. 17.—An important meeting of the Bankers' Association took place here yesterday. The meeting was to receive the report of Messrs. W. H. Mowbray of the Merchants' Bank of Canada and F. W. Taylor of the Bank of Montreal, who had been appointed to look into the circulation of Ville Marie bank notes. Mr. Mowbray, Deputy Minister of Finance, was also present, and when the report had been read it was decided not to give the report for publication. All of these present refused to talk, but it was stated that the reports show that the real circulation of the defunct bank exceeded the amount mentioned in the September statement by $300,000.

Criminal Proceedings Taken.

There was no end of excitement in business and banking circles late yesterday afternoon when it became known that the threats to take criminal proceedings against President Weir and his associates of the Ville Marie Bank had been realized and that writs had been signed against the president and his associates. Upon inquiry at Police Court it was learned that criminal proceedings had been taken against Messrs. William Weir, president; Fred Smith, director, and Ferdinand Lemieux, the accountant who was arrested some time since and discharged when the directors refused to proceed against him. The action was taken by Deputy Minister of Finance and the complaint laid under section 81 of 49 Victoria, chapter 130 of the Bank Act. The defendants will appear to-morrow at the Police Court.

THE BOWMANVILLE ROBBERY.

Chief Constable of Hull Thinks He Has the Burglar's Caper.

Ottawa, Aug. 17.—Chief Constable of the Hull Police has solved the mystery of the Standard Bank robbery, which occurred in Bowmanville last May. The suspected bank robbers are now in the hands of the Hull police, and in a short while interesting developments may be expected.

It may be remembered that on May 13 a gang of robbers stole $11,000 from the Standard Bank. The night watchman saw the six men inside and several more outside. He said he could identify some of them if ever he saw them again. A reward of $5,000 was offered for their capture. A gang of five men was arrested by the Hull police some time ago, and Chief Constable believed, from the records of the fellows, that they might be the same robbers. He worked on the quiet for three months. The traps were photographed, and the pictures were sent to the local authorities. Some of the fellows were identified by the watchman as the robbers. They are James, John, William, Hastings, Collins, and the time of the robbery, that he had been in the bank.

Organ Recital.

Miss Mabel De Guerra, of Toronto, and Mr. E. A. Shanklin, of Chicago, will sing at Mr. Hunt's Organ Recital in Bridge at Church to-night. A very attractive programme will be rendered.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That Belleville has been very lucky this summer in the matter of fires. While nearly every near-by place has had its serious conflagration, we have escaped nearly scot free.

That that excellent institution, the Mechanics' Institute, does not get the credit and support it deserves.

That if anybody steps in the hole in the sidewalk on Queen st., near George, and injures himself, he will have grounds for damages against the City.

That French "justice," as exemplified in the Dreyfus case, is only a figure of speech.

That people who break the City by-law by letting their lawn sprinklers run all night should at least see that they do not play on the sidewalk. Last night a gentleman who lives on Bridge street and was going home at 11:30 had to take the middle of the street to avoid a bath. Verbum sat.

That the City water at present is not exactly the pleasant beverage that pure "Adam's ale" ought to be. If the Waterworks officials could by any means make it more palatable they would earn the gratitude of their customers.

That the men who are blasting on Coleman st. are altogether too careless in their operations. They set off a blast this morning about 8 o'clock, near Cooper's mill, and some stones went nearly to the Upper bridge.

TRIED TO KILL THE CONDUCTOR FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Bullet Passed Within a Few Inches of His Head. Benjamin H. Eckert, Formerly of Belleville.

Murder Coolly Planned--Supposed to Have Been the Act of a Tramp, But No Explanation as to Where He Got the Rifle.

Lindsay, Ont., Aug. 17. Mr. James Greaves, Conductor of the G.T.R. train running daily between here and Coboscook, had a narrow escape from being shot while passing Wilson's siding, three miles this side of Coboscook, last night. It is a grave custom to ascertain at the different points along the line on the up trip the number of cars to be taken on the down trip in the morning, and when passing Wilson's siding he was looking out of the closed window communicating with the engineer when he heard the report of a rifle and the frame of the coach through which he was looking crashed in. On examination it was found that the bullet passed through the frame and out of an open window on the other side of the coach, passing within a few inches of the conductor's head. Everything points to it being a deliberate attempt on Mr. Greaves' life, and yet he himself cannot say for the life of the conductor was done by a tramp whom the conductor compelled to pass his fare when stealing a ride a few days ago.

Light Weight Top Coats. Because the warm weather is still with us is no reason why you should refrain from buying a top coat. We have a beautiful line of whipcord coats in the fashionable "shot" lengths and loose fitting, just the thing to slip on cool evenings and raw days, perfectly made in latest styles. Not only equal but superior to so called ten dollar coats. Our price $8.00. Quick & Robinson.

THE TEMPTATION WAS STRONG.

And Mrs. James Noyes Broke the Eighth Commandment.

On Wednesday last Mrs. James Noyes, of Stone, was engaged to do some washing for a rather aged maiden lady, Miss Ann Dorcy, who lives at Mr. John Tagher's, corner of Ridley and Geddes st.

Among the articles given her to wash was an undershirt, and in a pocket of the skirt, was a pocket-book, containing a deposit receipt for $800 and $72 in bills.

After the work had been done Miss D. O., who it appears was ill in bed at the time, thought of the purse being in the skirt and told the Tagher family about it.

Mrs. Noyes denied all knowledge of the money, so there was nothing left for Mr. D. O. but to recourse to law. Yesterday Officer Hayes, armed with a search warrant, went to the Noyes residence, and, after a three hour search, found the $72 between two posts in the wood shed. Mrs. Noyes thereupon confessed that she had committed the theft, had torn up the deposit receipt and burned the pocket book in the stove at Mr. Tagher's the same day.

It was a sad little group which appeared before Magistrate Flint this morning. With tears streaming down her face the poor woman pleaded for mercy. As the money was all recovered Miss Dorcy had no desire to prosecute, and taking into consideration that the woman had six children and had always borne a good character, the Magistrate took pity on her and sentenced her to go with a suspended sentence of six months in the Central.

School Suits.

They must have them. They must be strong, too, and you'd like them neat.

Suppose you try us. We have sound reason to think we can give you a neater fit and more wear than you get anywhere for equal price. Those who have tried us are our customers and you'll find the crowd at McKenry's.

Our New Goods

For Fall are coming in fast and we can give you a good assortment of fine footwear to choose from. You will find our prices right. VERMILYEA & SON.

Not Coming Home.

A report in some manner became current yesterday that Mr. Jos. D. Clark, who is in the Klondike, was on route home. We learn from a member of the family that there is no foundation for the report. Mr. Clark is still in the gold country and is doing well.

Are You Going From Home?

A great many people are making arrangements just now for trips out of town. The fall fairs will soon be on and the usual crowds are sure to attend. How about your clothes? You want a nice suit and light overcoat anyway, and you may as well get them now and make your trip looking respectable. The Oak Hall has all their new fall suits and overcoats ready.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

Mr. Charles H. Bell, the leading druggist of Belleville, B. C., has a very good reason to believe Griffiths' Menthol Liniment will cure Chronic Bronchitis. His customer says he has been troubled with Chronic Bronchitis for years, and that three bottles of Menthol Liniment have entirely cured him. It always gives the best of satisfaction. Sold by D. M. Waters, Cor. Front and Bridge sts.

Marine Notes

The tug Beaver, belonging to Mr. J. Bonar, which has been engaged at Cardinal for some time, left to-day for Cornwall.

The steamer Toronto, of the Richelieu Navigation Company, was yesterday detained for some time at Alexandria Bay, owing to a fog.

Fair Evidence for Everybody.

No one can doubt the great merit of Polson's Nervine, for it has been placed on the market in 10 cent bottles, just to give you the opportunity of testing its wonderful power over all kinds of pain. This is the only medicine of its efficacy, for every person can try for themselves. Polson's Nervine is a positive (it cannot fail) cure for cramps, headache, cold, neuritis, and the host of pains that flesh is heir to. Good to take for a railway or a long drive, and a store and buy a 10 cent sample bottle. Large bottles 25 cents.

Volcanic Eruptions

Are grand, but skin eruptions rob life of joy. Bucken's Arnia Salve cures them; also Old Hanning and Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, Warts, Ringworms, Burns, Scalds, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Best Eczema on earth. Drives out Pains and Itches. Only 25 cents. Care guaranteed. Sold by J. S. McKenry, druggist.

The Last Sad Rites.

There was a large attendance at this afternoon at the funeral of the late Mrs. Henry Vandewater. Services were conducted at the house at 2 o'clock by the Rev. C. E. McIntyre, Pastor of Bridge st. Methodist Church. The interment took place at the cemetery. The bearers were: Messrs. J. H. Milton, John and Charles, sons of deceased; Mr. J. R. Eilbeck, of Kingston, and Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., sons-in-law. Many beautiful floral tributes were placed upon the casket by friends.

Case Dismissed.

The Magistrate this morning gave judgment in the case of Kerwin vs. Geary. It will be remembered that the deft., Mr. Geary, went to Tweed and secured his daughter from Miss Kerwin, with whom she had been living for some years. Miss Kerwin alleged that she was assaulted by Geary. The Magistrate held that the defendant did not use any more force than was necessary for the recovery of his child, and dismissed the case. Mr. W. J. Diamond for the defendant.

The residence of Rev. Dr. Lyle, Hamilton, was broken into on Thursday morning and ransacked. P. C. Fuller discovered the robbery. As the family are in Muskoka, the extent of the robbery cannot be ascertained.

The 1st Colorado Regiment of Volunteers has arrived home from the campaign in the Philippines. The regiment, commanded by Colonel McCoy, returns with 40 officers and 924 men, about 250 less than the number who sailed from San Francisco last year.

A large proportion of northern New York, including the Counties of Jefferson, St. Lawrence and Lewis, is being swept by fierce forest fires that have already destroyed thousands of dollars' worth of valuable timber land, and threaten to do enormous damage, unless quenched by a heavy rain.

Toronto is being flooded with counterfeit one-dollar bills, so local bankers say. The counterfeit is a very poor imitation and is said to be manufactured by some American firm, and bears the date "June 1, 1898, G. Senz." Samples of the same dollar bills have been detected in various parts of the province.

John Sir William Hann Kennedy, Q.C., a judge of the Supreme Court of Justice, and a number of prominent British lawyers, are passengers on board the Dominion Line steamer New England. They will attend the meeting of the American Bar Association, to be held at Buffalo, N.Y., before which body Justice Kennedy will read a paper Aug. 29.

The directors of the Hochelaga Bank have decided to liquidate a quarter of a million to the capital stock. The figure was formerly $1,500,000, which is, by the recent decision of the directors, increased to $1,250,000. It is understood that the new stock will be distributed among the present shareholders at the rate of one share to five, at 130. The stock sold yesterday at 152.

A Toronto syndicate on Thursday bought out the bicycle interests of the Mack-Harris Co., of London, Co., Toronto Junction; Gold Bicycle Co., Hamilton; and the Holland Vale Co., St. Catharines. Application for a charter for a company with $60,000.00 capital will be made at once to the Ontario Government, while the Dominion Government will also be asked for a special charter.

Mr. W. E. H. Massey will be the president of the Big Concern.

Not to be Deceived Twice. Some needed to take a chance. He is an eastern drummer and was visiting friends in Colorado. The western country is noted for the cleanliness of the atmosphere, which leads an appearance of proximity to remote objects, and the drummer, admiring a magnificent mountain which apparently towered up only a few miles away, said he was going to walk over to its base before dinner. The mountain was in reality 70 miles distant, but his friends allowed the tenderfoot to get an hour's start, then set out in a carriage to overtake him.

They came upon him ten miles out. He was shivering on the banks of an irrigated river. "Hello, there, George, what are you up to?" called one of his friends.

"I'm going to swim this river," answered the man of samples.

"That's no river. It's only a ditch four miles wide. Why don't you jump over it?" "Well, maybe it is," answered George doubtfully, "but I thought that mountain over there was only about two miles off, and I wasn't going to take any chances with this stream."

A Russian Superstition. Russian girls try to ascertain their prospects of matrimony in the following manner: A number of them take off their rings and conceal them in a basket of corn. A boy is then brought in and invited to partake of the corn. The owner of the first ring uncovered will be the first to be married.

MUSIC WAS DELIGHTFUL

Another Large Crowd Gathered to Hear the I. O. O. F. Band Play.

The attendance at the weekly band concerts is now no sign of diminution, in fact they seem to grow more popular from week to week. Last night's programme was a most pleasing one, and was cleverly rendered. Of special interest was the saxophone duet by Messrs. Brickman and Dornberg, which was a very pleasing number. The cake walk "I'm Skinner," as usual, gave unbounded delight to the younger members of the audience.

Daily Intelligence.

WILL THERE BE AN INVESTIGATION?

In an interview with Mr. J. P. WITNESS, published in the Mail and Empire, we note he said in reply to a question as to the advisability of having the conduct of the bye-elections referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, that he was not sure how such a motion would be received by the present Government. "The party," said he, "is rather committed, by resolution of its own, against investigation by committee of election frauds. A few years ago when Hudson was elected in West Hastings by methods which we thought demanded investigation by the Committee on Privileges and Elections, a motion was made accordingly by the Opposition. To that resolution Sir Oliver Mowat's Government offered a long amendment setting up the theory, fallacious of course, that Parliament had elected itself of jurisdiction in respect of such matters and conferred it upon the House of Commons. How in the face of that precedent the Ontario Government will likely act, I would not venture to say. But certain it is, a refusal to investigate after what has already been made public will not be tolerated by honest Liberals throughout the province."

It should be noted that "East," not "West Hastings." It is quite true that a committee was refused by Mowat and his supporters, though Mr. Hudson made the charges in Parliament direct, upon his own responsibility as a member of the Legislature, that there had been ballot stuffing at the East Hastings election, and produced affidavits of electors, showing that more ballots had been marked for and cast for him than were in the ballot box when the votes were counted. What the author of the "evidence of Christianity" did, it may well be inferred his "wicked partner" will not hesitate to repeat. Still let us hope for better things. The rascality and political villainies of the "huggers of the machine" were not then so well known. Now that they have been fully exposed, in the case of West Elgin, with Mr. Hardy and his followers dare refuse to allow the most searching investigation into the manner in which the by-elections were carried. If such an opportunity is refused, every honest elector should revolt and the most condign punishment follow.

CHAMPERTY.
This is a crime among a certain class of lawyers, that is, it is feared, too frequently practiced, but not often detected and punished; probably from the fact that it is not generally known among litigants that for a lawyer to buy a suit is illegal and punishable by stripping the gown from the legal vulture who practices it.

A telegram from Victoria, B.C., of Aug. 15th says:—

"Ex-Attorney General Martin, before the Benchers' Law Society, to-day, admitted the facts alleged in the case of champarty charged against him by the defendant in the suit of Cameron v. Nichol, in which Mr. Martin took the case for half the money to be recovered and a lease of the quarry involved. The benchers suspended him during the first week in October, and in the meantime he will appeal to the full court as to whether champerty is an offence in this province.

Whether it is a crime in British Columbia or not, one thing is certain, it is a crime in England and in most, if not all, of the English Colonies, and it will surprise us if it is not found to be against the law in British Columbia.

SOAP AND TOWEL ECONOMIST.

Men like James McMullen, Esq., M.P. for North Wellington, who engaged reporters for themselves by delving into the pages of the Auditor-General's Report to find out how much it cost each department of the Conservative Government for washing towels, and to learn how many knives and forks were secured at the Government house annually, must feel, if they have any feeling, the unenviable and humiliating position in which they find themselves in supporting a Government, the most reckless and extravagant "that has been."

For instance, Mr. McMullen in 1893, when speaking for the party of which he is so distinguished a member, exclaimed in conflict and exulting tones:—

"If I do not give you reciprocity in 'three years and reduce the expenditure to 'thirty five million dollars, turn us out, gentlemen, turn us out.'"

This same gentleman is now the defender of a Government that asks, for $75,000,000, but within a few dollars of $70,000,000. Yes, Jim, the people should take your advice and turn you and your extravagant friends out.

THE REMEDY IS IN THE HANDS OF THE PEOPLE.

Governor Roosevelt, of New York, he of Lough Rider fame, in a recent address delivered at Ocean Grove, N.J., gave utterance to some remarks which go to show that "Teddy" is a sage as well as a soldier. He said:—

"It is idle for the mass of good citizens to try to set themselves apart as not responsible for our political shortcomings. In the end the politicians must be exactly what the people allow them to be. They must represent the people—perhaps the vice, perhaps the virtue, perhaps the indifference of the people. This does not mean that the bad politicians who are bad and we must keep in mind the fact that every vicious politician, above all, every successful vicious politician, tends to debauch public opinion, to render bad men bolder and decent men who are not far-sighted more cynically indifferent than ever. In blaming the politician do not forget that we are ourselves to blame for permitting his existence. Again, do not fall into the mistake of thinking that we shall ever make politics better by trying in any shape or form. The whole history of the world shows that the wrong done by the mere sentimentalism is often of larger proportions and more elastic than any other kind of wrong."

There is a moral in the above, and, strong, for Canadian voters. Every voter in the Dominion knows how the country is being plundered by the party at present in power—out of the mouths of their own friends they are being condemned. Ever since they came into power extravagance and corruption have gone hand in hand, and, as the straightforward and honest people of the country have been so treacherously pointed out, if people do not use the remedy which is at their disposal they can never expect things to get better. When they are marking their ballots at the next general election let them think of the $70,000,000 squandered, the amount of corruption which has been present at the by-elections, the organization which stuck at nothing, fair or foul, to gain its ends; and then, if they want clean and honest government, and vote at their consciences, let them turn out and keep them out.

EPIDEMICS OF CRIME.

Students of human nature and sociologists long ago contended that crime, like disease, quite often became epidemic. It was pointed out in London some years ago that just as sure as any unusual suicide or murder came to light, almost immediately another would appear. One man in New York, a few years ago, committed suicide in a way never before heard of, and in less than a week he had four imitators. In one of Dickens' books he makes one of his characters, a swindling lunatic, commit suicide by opening one of his veins in a bath tub, and within a year of the publication of the book there had been a dozen suicides throughout England who crossed the dark river by that route. One doesn't have to look away from Canada to find instances of this kind. Note the bank robberies which have been transpiring lately. Ever since the Napanee bank robbery, which may be said to have started the epidemic, reports have been coming to hand from all parts of Canada of banks being robbed. The publicity given to these matters in a certain portion of the press is to a large extent responsible for it. People with an unusually large morbid and vicious streak in their natures read all accounts of such crimes with avidity. Every particular of how the "job" was done is given in the yellow journals with a perfection of detail worthy of a better cause, and a spirit of emulation is aroused in the breast of many a man who perhaps, but for that, might have lived out his allotted days in the odor of respectability and died an honest man—in deed, at all events.

A mighty agent in the press, either for good or bad. Perhaps the press will right itself some time, but at present the evil of "yellow journalism" is one of the problems of the day.

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

—On the average, what aways more gold to the ton than the gravel of any creek in the Yukon.

—In English courts it is the practice to abuse the plaintiff's attorney when there is no defence. In France the new practice is to shoot the plaintiff's attorney.

—Lady Louisa Madeline Tighe, of Woodstock, Ontario, County Kilkenny, Ireland, is probably the only woman alive who can boast that she danced at the famous Travellers ball, and heard the roar of the guns at Waterloo. She also heard the "sound of revelry by night" described by Byron in Child Harold, and, in fact, was herself one of the revellers, even if she were only 12 years old.

—The great death of dancing men is at present exercising the minds of London society hostesses. The sequin gown has, it seems, much to answer for in respect to this, and loud are the complaints of men who have found that jetted gowns worn by a partner are anything but conducive to the preservation of the glass and perfect condition of a well groomed man's evening suit. A newspaper, chiefly devoted to sartorial matters, declares that some corsages are as uncomfortable and as damaging to ensembles as a thorn bush or bundle of thistles, and adds "if the modistes will agree to put some buffer between a man's wrists and coat when he dances, perchance the death of dancing men in London may not occur time."

Married in Kingston.

On Wednesday evening, at Kingston, Miss Margaret Bruce Eby, of that city, was married to Mr. Ernest W. Ferguson, of Mountain View, P. E. Co. Rev. T. C. Brown, Pastor of the Brock st., Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was attired in white organdie over white silk, trimmed with lace and white ribbons. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her sister, Miss Mahel Eby, acted as bridesmaid. Miss was dressed in a figured organdie over white. Mr. Daniel Eby acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson have taken up their residence at Mountain View.

A Correction.

It was stated in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER that it was the Trenton Electric Light men who were doing the careless lighting on Coleman st. This was not correct. It seems that the men are employed by the C. P. R. In reference to the supposed damage to the water main, we are informed by the officials of the Waterworks that the water which has made its appearance there, was supposed to come from a break in the main, in reality escapes from the Moira st. sewer.

Dog Cases.

A number of cases of delinquents who have neglected to register their canines were before the P. E. to-day. In all cases a fine of $1 and $1 costs was imposed.

HAD ANOTHER BRISK FIGHT.

Col. Smith Left Calicut and Attacked Entrenched Enemy.

Frequent Rushes by Americans Demoralized the Filipinos. The Intense Heat caused the U.S. Soldiers Much Suffering. The Insurgents braved out after a Sharp Skirmish. More Troops to Be Sent Forward. A Great Army.

Manila, Aug. 18.—The 12th Infantry under Col. Smith left Calicut at sunrise yesterday and advanced up the mountain. The insurgents were found well entrenched in front of the town. At a distance of 1,500 yards the Filipinos opened fire. The enemy sent heavy volleys against the whole American line. Most of their shooting, as usual, was high, but they concentrated their heaviest fire down the creek upon the artillery. Col. Smith kept the whole line moving rapidly with frequent rushes. Unable to stand continuous volleys, the Filipinos abandoned the trenches and retreated through the town northward.

Insurgent Attack Repelled.

Eight hundred insurgents attacked Angeles yesterday morning, but the 12th Regiment drove them into the mountains. Three ditched locomotives were captured. None of the American troops was injured. The insurgent loss is not known.

Ten More Regiments.

Washington, Aug. 18.—An order has been issued directing that ten additional regiments of infantry volunteers be organized for service in the Philippines. The regiments will be numbered from 88 to 97.

A Policy of Superior Force.

The organization of the ten new regiments will give General Otis a fighting force of 62,451 men, and in addition to this, it is proposed to increase the hospital corps in the Philippines to 3,000 and to increase the number of medical officers so that General Otis will have an army of 65,451 men.

THE NEW WEEKLY.

The Mail and Empire of Toronto Enlarge Their Edition.

The last issue of The Weekly Mail and Empire contains its own funeral notice. It is, in truth, the last issue of the weekly in its present form. Next week the new Weekly Mail and Empire will appear. It will comprise three eight-page sections, make it distinctly a home paper, appealing to every member of the family. The Weekly Mail and Empire will retain its excellent features, and will absorb the Farm and Fireside, strengthening it with a wider and more varied treatment of agricultural and live stock topics, retaining, however, the woman's department by "The Critic," the critical talks by "Plume," its legal queries answered by Barrister Edward Meek, and its popular children's page. Especial merit is promised for the illustrated short and serial stories, as being worthy features of the Literary section.

YESTERDAY'S CHURCH SERVICES

Brief Reports of the Various Services at Our Different Churches.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH.

At the above church yesterday morning the service was taken by two visiting clergymen, Rev. J. A. Todd, of Ottawa, and Rev. George Worrall, of Philadelphia, formerly of this City. Rev. Mr. Worrall was the preacher, and took as his text the 14th verse of the first epistle to the Corinthians.

But the natural man receiveth not the spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him, neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

The preacher showed the utter impossibility of agnostics and un-Christian men understanding the Word of God, for as dead men were not fit to criticize matters of mind and matter, neither of sculpture or painting, neither were men who had not their spiritual eyes opened able to understand and appreciate the teachings of the Bible. The sermon was full of sound, practical thoughts, and was listened to with much attention.

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH.

At the above church the usual service was held, but on account of the heat they were greatly curtailed. In the morning Rev. Mr. Gustin gave a five minute service in place of a sermon and in the evening Rev. Canon Burke gave a short address.

At this place of worship yesterday morning, Mr. Collyer, evangelist, conducted the morning services, preaching a practical sermon and rendered appropriate hymns with guitar accompaniment. In the evening Rev. N. Hill, pastor, occupied the pulpit.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

Rev. Randal Dean Bogert occupied the pulpit at both services yesterday. The sermon was omitted at the evening service.

Rev. O. W. Watch, the pastor, was absent yesterday and in the morning Mr. Martin preached, and in the evening a former student of Albert College.

Obituary.

WM. THOS. LAKE.

Wm. Thos. Lake, known as Dr. Lake, died on Saturday at the residence of his brother, Mr. J. C. Lake, as the result of a paralytic stroke which he received a few days ago. The deceased was born at Baldwinville, N. Y., 68 years ago. In the early part of his life he was engaged in the milling trade, working in that capacity at Warden, Baltimore, Ont., Stone Mills at Glenora and other places. For a number of years he conducted the Coast Hotel at Picton. For the past four years he has resided in Belleville, doing business on the market square. Deceased was twice married, but both wives died prior to the grave. His first wife was Miss Ellen McGuire, of Picton, his second being Miss McGuire, of the same place. Two sons and four daughters survive, two of the latter being by the second wife. All the children reside in the United States. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of Mr. J. C. Lake to the cemetery. Services were conducted at the house by Rev. C. E. McIntyre, pastor of Bridge St. Methodist Church.

Darkest Russia.

Which will be seen at the Opera House on Thursday night, is the longest lived of any of the many plays that have been written about the Russian theme. It is a story of dramatic strength, yet so wonderfully rich in its own element, for there is an abundance of good, substantial laughter evoked by this farce. The company formed is of excellent and embraces among others the clever young leading man, Mr. Herbert Fortier, Katherine Willard, Harry J. Lyons, Kate Jepson and Alva Perry. All the scenery for the entire production is carried by the organization.

Plan now open at Riggs.

THE DAYS OF THE COMMUNE

Recalled by the Anarchist Outbreak in Paris on Sunday.

Church of St. Joseph Attacked and Wrecked.—Police and Gendarmes Were Attacked With Knives and Hatchets and There Was Considerable Bloodshed.—Two Cops Also Wrecked.—Police Chief Stabbed.—380 Persons Injured.

Paris, Aug. 21.—Paris was yesterday the scene of most serious disturbances, recalling some of the aspects of the Commune. In response to an appeal of the Journal Le Peuple and La Petite République, groups of Anarchists and Socialists gathered at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in Place de la Republique, Sebastian Faure and Fabert, well-known revolutionary Anarchists, addressed the crowd. Among other things Faure said the Anarchists should be masters of the streets.

The Police Intervened.

The police then intervened and dislodged Faure and Fabert, making three arrests. The crowd at this point dispersed. Faure and Fabert jumped into a passing street car that was going to the Place de la Republique, and the car driver, on arriving there, gave a signal to the police, who immediately arrested them, together with two other Anarchists, Joseph Perrier and Jean Perrin. All were conveyed to the Chateau Eau Barras.

Only d'Harc was found in possession of firearms. In the case of M. Goullier was twice stabbed with a knife.

In the meantime the Anarchist mob retraced its course to the Place de la Republique, aiming the windows of religious edifices on the way. Suddenly, either at the word of command, or in obedience to impulse, the column made a loop and curved toward the Church of St. Ambrose, where the rioters smashed the windows. Proceeding thence toward the Faubourg du Temple, which they reached at the corner of the Rue Darboy and the Rue St. Maur-Popincourt, they formed up into a compact body.

Church of St. Joseph Wrecked.

Hatchets were suddenly poured with long knives stolen from the counters of shops, and a concerted rush was made upon the Church of St. Joseph. The aged sacristan, seeing the mob, hastily closed the outer gates, but they were soon forced with hatchets and bars of iron. The massive oak doors were then attacked. Meanwhile the sacristan, who had been captured by the Anarchists, escaped and called the police and Republican Guards, who promptly arrived with manly courage. The mob was compelled to fall back in order to form up into lines of defense, and the Anarchists attacked them furiously with knives. At length the officers began to gain the mastery. A score of Anarchists took refuge in an adjacent house. Twenty Anarchists were captured by the police, which they searched and found to be carrying revolvers, loaded pistols and knives.

Interior a Complete Wreck.

When the police entered the church the Anarchists had just set fire to the pulpit. The interior of the edifice was a complete wreck.

About 10 o'clock disorders occurred on the Boulevard de Magenta and Boulevard de Strasbourg. Several revolvers were fired, but nobody was injured.

Two newspaper kiosks were burned and several arrests were made in connection therewith.

There is no change in the situation at the building in the Rue de Chabrol, where M. Jules Guerin and his anti-social companions are entrenched in a state of siege against the police, who have orders for their arrest.

Up to 12 a.m. 38 persons have been reported injured, including several policemen. No one, so far as known, was injured by firearms. Nor will the mob be hurt by being crushed or trodden under foot. A body of rioters, who had taken refuge in the courtyard of the Chateau d'Eau, were expelled by the police, who made 35 arrests. Quiet has now been restored.

Two Cops Also Wrecked.

Besides St. Joseph's Church, two cafes were wrecked. At a late hour 30,000 people were in the Boulevard de Magenta, which runs past the end of the Rue de Chabrol. They were kept constantly moving by the Republican Guards, who made a remarkable display of force.

Police Drew Their Swords.

In the Avenue de Taillebourg there was a fierce conflict. The police had to draw their swords against the Anarchists, who assailed them with stones. Four policemen were wounded, two so seriously that they had to be taken to the hospital.

380 PERSONS INJURED.

Police Statistics Show the Rioting to Have Been Serious.

Paris, Aug. 21.—The prefecture of police gives the following statistics of yesterday's rioting: Three hundred and eighty persons were injured, 360 were taken to the hospital, 30 police agents were wounded, besides Commissaires Goullier and Domestique. One hundred and fifty persons were arrested, of whom 30 are detained in custody.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

An unknown man was cut to pieces at Montreal on Sunday by a C.P.R. train and mangled badly. The body has not been identified.

An 11-year-old boy named William Hayden was run over by a heavily loaded wagon at Montreal on Saturday and instantly killed.

The body of Private Dunn of the R.C. Rifles of Toronto, who was killed in the Ottawa River near Rockcliffe Camp, was found on Saturday.

The new steamer Italia, owned by the Calvin Co. of Kingston, with a cargo of iron, went ashore eight miles above this place on Sunday. It is thought the steamer will be lighted off without damage.

It has been definitely settled that Major General Hutton and Bishop Du-quesne of Niagara will officiate at the opening of the Toronto Exhibition a week from Tuesday.

London Menaced by Bubonic Plague.

London, Aug. 21.—Public opinion in Great Britain is very excited on the subject of the plague in regard to the Italian plague, which, now "three days" broken out at Lyons, is only three days' journey distant from London. A leading authority on the subject says the sanitary arrangements of Italy are in England, including London, are not calculated to meet the disease. If it should break out in the East End of London, the result would be very serious. The sanitary arrangements, while excellent and plenty of air.

SATURDAY'S COURT-MARTIAL

Capt. Dreyfus' Enemies Seem to Have Had Another Inner.

Major Guignot Backed Gen. Maistre, and Also Defended Paty de Clam and Esterhazy Against the Accusations of Col. Picquart. Gen. Boisselard Also Gave Testimony Which Was Strongly Against Dreyfus-Frequent's Reply.

Remnes, Aug. 21.—No special incident occurred on Saturday morning when the second trial by court-martial of Captain Alfred Dreyfus of the 14th Artillery, charged with treason, was resumed at the Lyceum.

The witness called was Major Guignot, formerly attached to the Ministry of War. He began by giving a personal explanation, which was intended to show that Dreyfus had not been in the Lyceum when the trial was held.

After launching the above declaration, which he apparently considered to be of weighty importance, the witness proceeded to detail in detail the trial which General Guignot assigned to him in May, 1898, of classifying the documents in the Dreyfus, Esterhazy and Picquart case.

"The first question I will ask here is," said the witness, "Is Dreyfus guilty?" "My conviction of his guilt is based on three grounds: First—His confessions to Captain Lebrun-Renaud. Second—The technical nature and content of his bordereaux. Third—The results of the examination of the secret dossier. I will now discuss each of these points in detail.

Continuing, the witness asserted that the bordereaux was written by Dreyfus at the end of August, and incidentally the Major protested against Col. Picquart's insinuations against Du Paty de Clam. The first portion of the dossier, he said, shows that in 1893 there was a constant leakage in the Ministry of War.

Another document of the dossier, according to Major Guignot, showed by dispute that the bordereaux actually passed through the hands of Colonel Schneider, who was then in command of the 14th Artillery, and established the authenticity of the bordereaux, an examination of which, he pointed out, showed that it was written by Dreyfus.

The first portion of the dossier, he said, shows that in 1893 there was a constant leakage in the Ministry of War.

Another document of the dossier, according to Major Guignot, showed by dispute that the bordereaux actually passed through the hands of Colonel Schneider, who was then in command of the 14th Artillery, and established the authenticity of the bordereaux, an examination of which, he pointed out, showed that it was written by Dreyfus.

Continuing, the witness asserted that the bordereaux was written by Dreyfus at the end of August, and incidentally the Major protested against Col. Picquart's insinuations against Du Paty de Clam. Paty de Clam Was Absent.

Amid a buzz of excitement the name of Major Du Paty de Clam was called out, whereupon Major Carrière said Paty de Clam had been officially informed that his presence was necessary, but the Government commissary had heard nothing from him since his notification was made.

At the request of M. Demange, it was decided to notify Paty de Clam that the court martial was ready to hear his deposition.

Gen. Boisselard. There was a further thrill of curiosity when General Boisselard, former chief of the general staff of the French army, advanced to the witness box and took the customary oath to tell the truth. The general remarked that, in view of the exhaustive evidence already given, he would try to be brief. He hurriedly reviewed the leakage in the Ministry of War, the discovery of the bordereaux, and the alleged confessions before the ceremony of degradation. To Captain Lebrun-Renaud, witness said he believed the confessions were genuine. He next referred to Colonel Picquart's appearance in the Intelligence Department, although witness hesitated to appoint him, because of his alleged self-confidence and not sufficiently deferential towards his chiefs.

No Secret Papers. "It has been said," continued General Boisselard, "that a secret package of papers was shown to the court-martial in 1894. I positively assert that, so far as I am concerned, I never ordered Colonel Picquart to convey any envelope to Colonel Maistre. I may add that Colonel Picquart never doubted the guilt of Dreyfus, and never even expressed any doubt as to his guilt when he took over the duties of chief of the Intelligence Department. The first instructions I gave him were to follow up the Dreyfus affair, and it is well known what was the result of these instructions."

Picquart Interview. General Boisselard said that after the quiet of a year, when Colonel Picquart was away on mission, three fellows—the denunciation of Esterhazy by Mathieu Dreyfus, and the inquiry into Esterhazy's proceedings. "At that time," he said, "I was convinced of the guilt of Dreyfus, and this conviction is as strong to-day as ever. (Sensation.)" regard it as an attainable goal, continuing, the general, "to have endeavored to substitute for him a man of straw."

Esterhazy Always Lies. He said, "Esterhazy, it is true, at a certain psychological and singularly well chosen moment, confessed to having written the bordereaux. But he has made other statements, always telling lies. What is certain is that he could never have delivered the documents enumerated in the bordereaux."

Then the witness briefly referred to the trial and acquittal of Esterhazy, and the latter's threat to proclaim himself a tool of the general staff, after which the general alluded to the Henry forgery and M. Carvalhais's interrogations.

That Leakage. Replying to the court, M. de Boisselard admitted that the leakage at military headquarters continued after the condemnation of Dreyfus. It ceased for a year, but in 1895 a paper was discovered, proving that the leakage had not stopped. A document relating to the distribution of the artillery and showing that a former officer, who was previously acquainted with the changes made.

Colonel Jonaus, president of the court-martial, put the usual questions to the witness. "I am," he said, "Dreyfus to say to Gen. de Boisselard." Dreyfus then immediately resumed his seat.

General Guignot declared that permits could easily be obtained. At this point Colonel Picquart entered the witness box in order to reply to allegations as to the way he performed his duties. He denied a number of General Guignot's assertions regarding the arrests which the witness ordered.

Picquart also described the extraordinary circumstances which had led to his employment in the Intelligence Department by his predecessors. Counsel for the defense, after emphasizing the fact that even in the opinion of General de Boisselard there was a connection between the Esterhazy and Dreyfus cases, asked the president of the court to request Colonel Picquart to give information in regard to the 100,000 francs which had been expended for the surveillance of Esterhazy.

Regulation of the Expenditure. Picquart explained how the expenditure was regulated in the Intelligence Department. No extraordinary expenditure was made in connection with the Esterhazy inquiry. There could not have been an inquiry costing less.

Bliss Wonted to Speak. Immediately after Picquart finished speaking General Billos jumped up and asked leave to speak. "Picquart," the general called sharply to the officer, who had just left the stand, "will you come back?" (Sensation.)

Certainly," replied Colonel Picquart. General Billos then asked, "I have pleased that Colonel Picquart has raised the question of the secret funds, which are now numbered 1,000,000 francs. I should, if I respected the purpose for which they are assigned, say nothing about them. I will endeavor to say nothing which should remain secret."

He then explained the expenditure, and said that when the credit of 100,000 francs was asked for, it was for the service of the general staff and not for the Intelligence Department, as Colonel Picquart believed.

Introducing anyone into the Ministry of War, and it is absolutely impossible for an officer to bring anyone into the Ministry. To this the general replied: "No doubt it is difficult. No doubt it is difficult. The Ministry can be entered easily enough at certain hours. Dreyfus is in a position to know that. (Sensation.)"

The prisoner—I will reply to Secretary Picquart who has told a lie. What I have to say to General Guignot is that every time a friend came to see me at the Ministry, even when a French officer, I was obliged to descend to the floor below, and even members of the Chamber of Deputies who called on me could not enter the Ministry. It was consequently almost impossible, under the ordinary circumstances, for a subaltern to bring anyone into the Ministry.

General Guignot declared that permits could easily be obtained. At this point Colonel Picquart entered the witness box in order to reply to allegations as to the way he performed his duties. He denied a number of General Guignot's assertions regarding the arrests which the witness ordered.

A LITTLE GIRL'S BIG CAPTURE.

Hooked a 110-Pound Sturgeon With a Clothes-Line.

Chatham, Aug. 21.—Yermine Hoff, a little girl of nine years, had a peculiar experience with a clothesline and a hundred and ten pound sturgeon at Lake Erie, about 18 miles south of Chatham. The little girl, who is staying with Henry Lindley at the lake, took a piece of clothesline, tied a large hook on it, and sent a friend to bait it with a piece of meat. She then went down to the lake and dropped her baited hook into the water. Something tugged at the line, and the little girl called to Mr. Lindley, who was near. He took the clothesline, and after a struggle landed a huge sturgeon. The fish measured 6 feet 3 inches, and weighed 110 lbs. when dressed. The incident is the topic of the hour.

PUBLIC OPINION

Expressed by the Liberal Press

The exposures which have been made in relation to the corrupt way in which the by-elections of late years have been carried has aroused public sentiment to such a degree that the whole Conservative and the more honest of the Liberal press are crying loudly for a remedy. This feature of the political history added to the extravagance of the present Government, is shaking the moral and economical sentiments of the people, as will be seen by utterances of many of the press supporters of Messrs. Laurier and Tarte. Here are a few extracts from the many editorials which daily come under our notice:

BRANTFORD EXPOSITOR (Liberal). "To-day seen the prorogation of the longest session of Parliament in Canada since Confederation, and the one in which the expressed will of the people 'has been most impudently overridden'."

The Kingston Whig (Liberal). "A horror of public debt, and when it sees the public obligations mounting up, it is left in wonder as to what the end will be. The Liberals, when in opposition, harped upon this debt, showed how it was growing, how it was out of all proportion to the resources of the country, how burdensome was the annual charge for interest alone; and the Liberals, in power, ought to make some pretence at the redemption of their promises."

Winnipeg Tribune (Liberal). "When it was announced that the railway subsidies brought down last night amounted to six and a half millions, thus bringing the total expenditure dangerously near sixty millions, there was a disposition to lose one's breath. Then it concluded: 'There is no disguising the fact that the cautious and canny element of the Liberal party is somewhat flustered. Just what has become of the economy plank of the platform is one of those questions which nobody seems anxious to answer. Everybody is not speaking at once.'"

HUNTINGDON GLEANER (Liberal). "The Premier and his colleagues may not realize it, but the enormous expenditure they are forcing on the country is ruining the Liberal party. The worst enemies of that party are not to be found on the Opposition, but on the Government benches. The ministers who, by their actions, are giving the lie to the old policy of the Liberal party in favor of retrenchment, in favor of bringing the expenditure within the income, in favor of making Canada a cheap country to live in, will yet have to answer for blasting the splendid prospects which the Liberals came into office. He is no true Liberal who keeps silent at a time such as this, and does not urge an immediate and complete reversal of policy."

Ottawa Journal (Independent). "While the province has been put to 'vile shame, while every decent paragon of what ever class, party, or stripe, or shade of opinion has denounced the villainy of the political methods revealed in West Elgin, while clergymen have voiced condemnation in the pulpit, and laymen on the platform—while reputation has come even from prominent Liberals like S. H. Blake and the Hardy Government has remained still and dumb, an oyster of apathy, in a pool of provincial shame, impassively silent, motionless as a stone."

"The component parts of the oyster, the Premier and his colleagues, if they go fishing not for election baggards, but for bass, the people should go gunning after the Government—with ballots."

MONTREAL STAR (Independent). "An organ with such a creed as the Globe's can easily believe that the estimate of the recent session will reduce the current expenditure and wipe out the national debt altogether; that what looks like extravagance is really economy; that the N.P. is only Coltanism in disguise; that the exposures of the Grid machine are evidence of purity and honesty, and that the noble army of workers is actually trying to elevate the standard of public morality; and that true statesmanship is best known in the abandonment of life-long principles. The only trouble is that if the Globe believes what it says it believes, it will be difficult to argue anybody else into believing that it believes what it tries to make the public believe it believes. The average Canadian is not as glib as the Globe confesses itself to be."

FREDERICTON, N. B. GLEANER (Liberal). "The play has been what we might have expected it would be when we consider the character of the chief puppets and of the manipulator."

There has been a view of high comedy in the piece. We have seen the choleric knight who declared before a righteous heaven that $38,000,000 was a tax heavier than Canada could bear, defending (to his credit) it as without any display of enthusiasm an expenditure of $60,000,000.

We have seen the party of purity (themselves) convicted of the grossest bribery and corruption. We have seen them defending the action of their machine, and have witnessed the spectacle of Ministers of the Crown taking part in disgusting electioneering.

We have seen the solemn protestors against a gerrymander gerrymandering at will, and cutting and carving the counties to suit their own electoral desires.

We have seen, too, the advocates of prohibition solemnly declaring that they never meant anything by their declarations.

"The effect of such criticism," says a contemporary, "from sources usually friendly is not offset, but rather heightened, by the exciting tone adopted by such organs as the Toronto Globe, which, while plainly feeling that the Government has broken faith with the people who created it, have not the courage to put themselves on record in a way to bring about a better state of affairs. Men who thought the Conservatives were spending too much money will not be reconciled to the Laurier Government spending tens of millions more by the Liberal organs' half-whining claims that in effect mean that the conditions created by Liberal success are stronger than the Liberal regard for solemn promises made before the whole country. Nothing that is said or can be said can break the force of the criticism of the Government's doings by newspapers which were Liberal before Sir Wilfrid Laurier was, and which criticisms are echoed by every independent journal in Canada. By every visible sign it has to be judged that the tide of popular opinion has turned against the men in power. I only need time to throw them as wrecks on the coast of the political sea."

ACCIDENT POLICIES.
A SOURCE OF DANGER.
There are many mistaken impressions abroad concerning the Policy which the City at present holds, protecting it against payments on account of accidents to its employees and its citizens. As stated lately in THE INTELLIGENCER, in the case of the man Kolhar, who has entered an action against the city for damages on account of an accident resulting in the loss of a leg, the question is, does the accident policy cover it? Certainly not, unless Kolhar can prove that it was through the neglect or carelessness of the city or its officials that he met with his mishap. Some people have the idea that if a civic employee or a citizen is injured the City can at once claim damages from the company issuing the policy. That idea is erroneous. The party injured must first sue the City and obtain judgment against them before the company becomes liable.

Here is a timely note. Suppose a resident of our city was injured through a defective sidewalk, he would not have much difficulty at the present time in proving that the City was liable, but could the City recover from the company issuing the policy? The City, in its application for a policy, binds itself to keep its sidewalks and streets in a reasonable state of repair. When it goes into court just now, and avers that Belleville's sidewalks are in a "reasonable state of repair." Just at present it would appear that the City is burning the candle at both ends—paying for an accident insurance policy and not fulfilling one of the terms of the agreement. It should either repair the sidewalks or cancel the policy.

Speaking to day with a gentleman thoroughly posted in insurance affairs, we were told that one reason for the companies raising the rates in this City was that some years ago a citizen of Belleville slipped and fell on an icy sidewalk and broke his leg. He had no intention of taking action against the City until he was visited by a lawyer, who was at that time a member of the City Council, and after being told of the accident policy which the City carried, was induced to enter an action. The case was settled before trial, and the injured party gave the Insurance Company's agent an affidavit to the foregoing effect. The man was dealt with directly, without the knowledge of the lawyer, who knew nothing of it till the whole facts came to light.

The question is, was the slippery state of the sidewalk the result of negligence on the part of the City? If not, then the City would have to pay any damages sustained, without any recourse under the accident policy which it holds. These are points worthy of serious consideration, both by the citizens and the City authorities.

WELL PUT.

"The question to be decided at the next election is whether Canada shall be governed by the Canadian people or the partisans of the Senate."—Toronto Globe.

Or perhaps whether Canada shall be governed by the Canadian people or by the beneficiaries of black-and-white campaign manipulators and ballot-box stuffers employed and protected by Liberal politicians.—Ottawa Journal.

RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION NOT YET DEAD.

INTOLERANCE IN AUSTRIA.

Recent suppression of the Methodist Churches, at Trieste, Austria, has, says a contemporary, drawn attention to the strict bounds set to religious liberty in Austria, even in these days of almost universal toleration. It appears that only two Protestant churches—the Lutheran and the Reformed Church—are recognized by the State and allowed the privilege of holding public worship. The other dissenting sects are treated as private communities, and are forbidden to invite or admit strangers to their services under pain of fine and imprisonment. In Vienna the law is not strictly enforced, but in the provinces the Methodist churches have been subjected to great inconvenience and humiliation by the severe police supervision they have had to put up with. At Trieste, the pastor, Dr. Dardi, who has labored there for sixteen years, and has been most anxious not to give offence to the authorities, admitted to the service a man who brought an introduction stating that he was a devout Methodist. He turned out to be a detective, and he reported to the authorities that the law requiring the services to be held in private was not observed. The result was the suppression of the church by the police. It seems, however, not unlikely that out of this evil good may come, for the position of the Austrian Methodists is such that to draw attention to it should be enough to enforce a remedy. They are classed by the authorities as infidels, and unless they register their children at birth as without religious faith, their religious education is taken out of the hands of the parents and committed to the priests in the state schools. The children are obliged to go to confession regularly between the ages of 7 and 14, and are not allowed to attend the Methodist Church or receive religious instruction, even from their own parents. Such a state of things in a civilized country would be incredible if it were not vouchered on good authority and borne out by facts. "It is not time, we may add, that Protestant countries not only protest against such intolerance, but take steps to prevent them. At this age of the world, no such persecution should be tolerated."

NO NEED OF LOOKING SHABBY.

It is Quite Easy to Make Old Dresses and Suits Look Like New.

Economical and smart women can make wondrous creations from seeming useless garments. The old dress that is out of style or too faded to wear can be readily dyed with Diamond Dyes to a fashionable color, and then made over so that it will look equal to new. Suits for boys can be made from old ones discarded by the father and a bath in Diamond Dyes will make them as handsome as new. Dresses and cloaks for the little girls can be made with little trouble and at small expense from cast-off garments of the older folk, and when they are dyed with Diamond Dyes the new make-overs will look as though they were fresh from the dressmaker.

Diamond Dyes are made especially for home use, and it is impossible for even the most inexperienced to have ill luck or meet with disappointments. Diamond Dyes color anything from ribbons, laces and feathers to heavy suits, jackets, slippers, and you always make lasting colors, even the professional dyer cannot rival.

HAD A GOOD TIME.

Yesterday's Windstorm Caused a Lot of Trouble on the Bay.

During the severe storm yesterday the craft upon the bay and lake suffered considerable inconvenience and many were tossed about like toys, but fortunately no fatalities occurred. The steam yacht Curlew was coming up the bay at the time, from Massabissa Park, and, owing to some defect in the machinery, was compelled to run ashore, it being feared that she would founder if this was not done.

A passenger upon the Varuna, which came from the 100 Islands, states that the storm struck her about the gap and a rough time was experienced while the blow lasted. The decks were washed over and articles were carried about, but the staunch craft weathered the storm well.

—The Knickerbocker Review rises to remark: If the Attorney-General's department pursued political criminals with one-tenth the zeal with which it pursues Billy Ponton, there would be very little crime committed in future elections.

—If the Tory press thinks it is going to lie the Liberals out of power as did poor Alexander Mackenzie, it mistakes the men.—Moncton Transcript.

No need to use falsehood. The truth is quite bad enough.

—A French colonel committed suicide because the newspapers criticized him. It is a good thing Canadian aldermen are not so thin-skinned, or some Canadian towns and cities would never be able to get a quorum at Council meetings.

—The aid of the material in drawing attention to the spiritual was illustrated by the resourceful strategy of a colored minister in New Jersey, who had slices of luscious watermelon passed around between prayer and exhortation. As a result his meetings were crowded, and sermons and watermelon were equally well digested.

—The Medical Brief presents a labored argument against the too free use of water as a beverage, which is all right as an argument, of course. The average man doesn't drink water to excess, however, and if he did it's not likely the exhibition produced would make him kill somebody or pull his wife's hair out. Water is a safer beverage to drink to excess than some other things.

—That singular instrument, the eophone, designed to prevent collision at sea, has been adopted by the United States government, and is likely to be introduced generally. The instrument consists of a vane, shaped like a block of steel rail, on the pilot house of a vessel, which is connected with a dial wheel in the cabin by a brass rod. The operator places receivers not unlike those used on a telephone to the ears. When, during a fog, a ship whistles ahead or a reef whistle, the vane catches the sound on the side upon which it occurs, transmits it through funnels to the receiver, and the operators, by turning the dial until the maximum sound is reached, can determine to the fraction of a point where the ship or reef is. It is said that the instrument never fails in accuracy.

IN HONOR OF
"BONNIE SCOTLAND."Yesterday's Gatherin' o' the Clans was Very Successful.

Crowds of Visitors in the City—First-Class Dancing and Athletic Events—The Skirt o' the Pipes Made Many Scottish Hearts Leap for Joy—The Promenade Concert a Grand Affair.

When yesterday dawned, with its lowering sky and threats of rain, many people shook their heads ominously and said "I'm afraid the weather will spoil the celebration." The younger ones hoped for the best, anyhow, and the elderly people, well, they were used to Scotch weather, and yesterday morning's cloudiness didn't frighten men and women who had been used to "Scotch mists." It was a great day. Gungary caps and Tam o' Shanters were in evidence everywhere. The picturesque costumes of the "Kilties" were gazed at admiringly, and with the many flags and banners displayed, the scene was one of interest and animation. There was a buzz of expectancy in the air all morning, for it was not the famous 48th Highlanders' band coming down from Toronto, and were not hundreds of Scotch ears just tingling to hear them play "Gock o' the North," that time when poor Piper Fillister made famous at "Dargal Ridge." Ah! dearer to Scottish hearts than any other is the music that reminds them of "Home, sweet home." At an early hour the streets were thronged with visitors, and it was apparent that nothing but a veritable downpour of rain could prevent the Society from scoring a great success. The land came in on the morning train and marched down to the Anglo, where they put up. Shortly after one o'clock, after the band and pipers had played a selection in front of the hotel, the route of procession was taken up to the Exhibition grounds, where the following programme of sports and games was carried out:

Exhibition Reel in Highland costume—Miss Elna Lamont, 1st; Miss Bunch, 2nd; A. Munro, 2nd; D. S. Johnson, 3rd.

Best Dressed Highlander With Ornaments—Peter Wilson, Toronto, 1st; J. McIntosh, Belleville, 2nd.

Second heat—M. F. Oliver, Deseronto, 1st; A. E. Riley, Belleville, 2nd; C. Martin, Trenton, 3rd; J. A. Lowry, Kingston, 4th.—Time 3:25.

Third heat—J. Row, Belleville, 1st; P. Bicknell, Deseronto, 2nd; A. Robinson, Kingston, 3rd; D. Fairman, Trenton, 4th.—Time 3:02 3/5.

The result was a win for Deseronto by 16 points, Belleville 15, Trenton 13, Kingston 10, Napawa and Pictou 3 each. Deseronto thus wins the cup for this year.

Boys' Race, 15 years and under, one mile—There were three entries for this event. They finished in the order named: J. Black, S. Pringle and R. Harrison.

One third mile (open), time limit 48 seconds—There were eleven entries for this event. They finished in the order named: Deseronto, 2nd, and N. J. Robinson, of Kingston, 3rd. Time 2:28 1/5.

Two mile club handicap—This race was won by A. Wensley; C. F. Dale 2nd, and J. Low 3rd. Time 5:31.

Two mile handicap, open—This was the event in which the accident occurred, it being one of the worst slips ever witnessed upon the track. There were twenty entries.

Ten of the riders were started in the scratch. Seven were given 75 yards and three 30 yards. When one lap had been completed the riders were in a bunch and continued in this position during the making of the second lap.

When going around the north west corner of the track the third time E. Lynn, of this city, and W. Morton, of Toronto, for lack of space, struck each other, and one of them fell. In a breath some 12 riders were in the air, the scene being the most indescribable. A rush was made by the crowd for the spot, and it was feared that some bad accident would result. One of the riders was picked up and laid upon the grass, being in an unconscious condition. This proved to be W. J. Walker, of this City. He was apparently severely injured. He was carried to the main building on the ground and the physicians upon the ground summoned to attend him. He recovered partially after some time and was taken home in the ambulance. N. J. Robinson, of Kingston, and J. A. Lowry, from the same place, both suffered considerably, the former being the most seriously injured. F. Lynn, of this City, sustained a number of bad cuts and bruises, and some of the other riders were hurt. It was fortunate that nothing more serious followed, as it was at first feared that some had been fatally injured. The accident had the effect of dampening the ardor of the crowd. A number of wheels were badly smashed.

Another event upon the program was, namely, the Citizens' Gold Medal Race, 5 miles, time limit, but owing to the accident and a large number of the riders being unfit for racing, it did not take place.

The programme was completed at 6:15, and the people left the grounds apparently well pleased with the afternoon sport.

PROMENADE CONCERT.

The promenade concert in the Pinnacle at risk last night was a highly successful affair. It was estimated that nearly three thousand people were in attendance, and one and all were loud in their praises of the entertainment provided by the 48th Highlanders' band and the other clever people on the programme. The playing of the band was enthusiastically applauded, the patriotic selections being especially popular. Their rendition of Bualas's characteristic composition, "A Hunting Song," was very pleasing. Mr. George B. McClellan's vocal selections were given in splendid style, while the Scotch dances were enthusiastically and gracefully executed. The dancing of the children, as usual, was a favorite feature, especially with the ladies. The Sons of Scotland are to be congratulated on what was probably the most successful Scottish concert held in Belleville for many years.

Who Taught You

The secret of honestly made clothing? Was it your teacher, or experience? You may have learned it in the classroom, but experience is a dear school. We have gone to that expense for you. Our experience saves you pocket money, and you learn the lesson of honesty by making clothing. Such clothing you find at QUICK & ROBERTSON'S.

Darkest Russia.

To night we will have H. Oratoff Donnelly's story and drama, "Darkest Russia," at the Opera House, as the opening attraction of the coming season. "Darkest Russia" is a good play, also it would not have survived the trying test of time as it has, for it is now in its seventh successful season before the public. Good plays are scarce, and this is a play of the kind.

Always Ready.

Any person leaving for the Northwest or any other country and wanting to get a winter outfit, can be fitted out at the Oak Hall just as well as in the cold country. This store is always ready, and you won't have to wait a minute. Overcoats, ulsters, undergarments, always ready to show, in season or out.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Sad Fate of a Former Belleville Man.

Back and Neck Broken by a Falling Timber—Leaves a Wife and Five Children.

News has been received in the City of the death of W. J. Williams, Michigan, of Mr. William Booth, who formerly resided on Murray street, this City. Particulars are meagre, but it seems that while engaged in lumbering, a large piece of timber fell on him from a wagon, breaking his neck and back.

The unfortunate man, who was very popular among his acquaintances in this City, leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss. His wife was a Miss Peart, and her father left Belleville only a short time ago to take up his residence with his son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Booth left here some two years ago.

Deceased was, during his residence in Belleville, a popular member of the XV. Battalion, being a sergeant in No. 5 Company, commanded by Capt. Vermilyea.

A Great Conqueror.
Napoleon was a great conqueror of nations, but Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure is as great a conqueror of the human family's direct enemy—Rheumatism.

John Hunter, Sir Brock St. King, Ont., suffered intense agony for six weeks with Sciatic Rheumatism. Two bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure made a complete cure in his case. He has not had a twinge of pain since. This preparation is used internally. Each bottle contains ten days' treatment, price 25 cents. For sale at all drug stores.

Will Preach to Masons.
On Sunday afternoon next the Masons of Campbellville will hold divine service at the Presbyterian church. Rev. C. E. McIntyre, pastor of Bridge street church, who is a member of the order, will occupy the pulpit.

I can now eat anything and have a new vigor. I can now eat anything and have a new vigor. I can now eat anything and have a new vigor."

Canada's Greatest Fair.
This year will mark the coming of age of Canada's Greatest Fair, and Industrial Exposition, which will be held in Toronto from August 28th to Sept. 9th. It is just twenty-one years since the first fair was established as an annual institution. During the present management, during the last year, the fair has been held in the same place, and the attendance has been made up of 300,000 people attended. This year such arrangements are being made as will result in the attendance of still larger attendance. Many entirely new features will be introduced, and the fair will be more than ever up to date.

3000 DAY FOR THE PRISONER Hostile Witnesses Tangled Up by Dreyfus's Counsel.

Sen. Mercur was among those Dreyfus gave an account of his life in the house, and made a good impression. Also his alleged confession was recounted and commented on by his enemies.

Rennes, Aug. 25.—When the court-martial of Captain Dreyfus began at the Lycée here at 6:40 a.m. yesterday, Colonel Jouanet, president of the court, called the witnesses. Given by M. Penot, a friend of the late Colonel Sandherr, chief of the clerk of the court, it was to the effect that Colonel Sandherr said that the Dreyfus family had offered him 150,000 francs on condition that he would clear Dreyfus.

The testimony of the first witness of the day, M. Lelouis, a former official of the Government, was also given. He was called in by the court, and at what M. Duboulet deposed on Wednesday regarding the alleged influence of Dreyfus with the German attaché at the house of M. Hadon, a mutual friend.

Col. Maurel was called. The president of the court then called Colonel Maurel, who was president of the Dreyfus court-martial in 1894. Colonel Maurel, who was acting as a witness, entered the hall and testified that he had seen Dreyfus in the prison. The Colonel was attired in a black frock coat, and wore the red ribbon of the Legion of Honor in his buttonhole. His hair is grey, and he has a ragged, iron-grey mustache. His face showed anxiety, as though the Colonel was conscience-stricken. As M. Lelouis had been with pointed questions, the Colonel hesitated, and then answered.

M. Lelouis then put a series of searching questions to General Mercier, with reference to the communication of the dossier for the court-martial. He asked the main facts, while his protestations that the reading of the document had no effect upon him, as his mind was already made up, was nullified by his subsequent declaration that this one document sufficed to convince him.

M. Lelouis then put a series of searching questions to General Mercier, with reference to the communication of the dossier for the court-martial. He asked the main facts, while his protestations that the reading of the document had no effect upon him, as his mind was already made up, was nullified by his subsequent declaration that this one document sufficed to convince him.

MUNITIONS OF WAR FOR BOERS Over 2,000,000 Cartridges and 500 Rifles Sent In.

The remainder of the sitting was taken up with the depositions of minor witnesses, mostly M. Beaupre's puppets, whose evidence, which it did not take long to see, was produced in a very interesting manner. Two interesting scenes, however, took place. First, when M. Lelouis asked General Dreyfus to give his opinion of Katerbach's role, and his visit to the German embassy Oct. 28, 1897. Dreyfus replied, in the tone of studied indifference which he habitually adopts towards counsel for the defense.

WE WARN THE PUBLIC that when buying Abbey's Effervescent Salt to be sure they get it. Shakespeare's head on the package stamps it genuine. Look for it.

There is no effervescent salt but Abbey's Effervescent Salt.

AVOID SUBSTITUTION.
(From the Canadian Druggist.)

There are forms of substitution which are quite as reprehensible as a deliberate giving of something else for the preparation ordered—and one of the latest of these has just come under our notice. Abbey's Effervescent Salt is recognized by the physician and public alike as a valuable remedy. Its sale has been almost phenomenal—a fact which is due to its real medicinal virtue. Recognizing this fact, a package has appeared on the market almost similar in appearance, size and style of bottle and package, and with a label as closely imitative as possible, intended, without doubt, to deceive the public.

It has unfortunately been purchased by some druggists, possibly without considering the evident intention of the makers, and also the loss of custom which must inevitably follow if an attempt is made to sell it in place of the article which it would seek to displace.

FOR sale by all druggists. Large bottles 60c, trial size 25c.

COOPER SHARES. Safest Investment, Largest Dividends.

A portion of the full paid and non-assessable capital stock of the Boston & Texas Copper Company is offered for sale at Five Dollars per Share (at $10 for Treasury purposes), and is recommended as a safe and highly promising investment.

The company controls twelve thousand acres of rich copper land in North Texas which is also valuable for farming and town site purposes. The tract is some 10 miles long and about three miles wide. It is equivalent in size to five hundred ordinary mining claims.

The property has been developed sufficiently to begin producing at once, large amounts of the richest copper ore (40 to 70 per cent) taken out and marketed, and inexhaustible quantities of copper mat and clay running from 3 to 15 per cent. copper ore. (Calumet and Hecla and other great dividend payers are working on 1 to 3 per cent. ore.)

The property is within 12 miles of a railroad and fuel and water are available. The ores and mat are produced on the surface, and can be mined and converted into copper cheaper than any other deposits in America. Copper will be produced on the ground and a plant of moderate cost will treat 300 to 500 tons of ore and material per day, and according to engineers estimate cost $3,000 to $5,000 per day net, with copper at 15 cents per pound. It is now 18 cents per pound.

The property has a historical reputation and a record in the State Geological Reports. It has been examined and reported upon by the highest engineering, geological and expert authorities and its merit and value are established beyond all question. It is not an experiment, nor its value speculative, they are proven and demonstrated.

FROM REPORT OF PROF. W. M. DEVERE, FORMER STATE CHEMIST OF TEXAS.

"Such numerous outcrops of copper ore have been traced over the summit and sides of these hills that out of 12,000 acres of land which the company own, hardly a 160 acre tract should be left without ore up to the surface."

"A cross-cut to the depth of 15 feet was made upon the Isbell lead, and ten hours' work resulted in the raising of 6,000 lbs. of rich copper ore, averaging about 60 per cent. copper. (With $565 net.)"

"The ore is easily melted and the strata in which it is found can also be more economically excavated than other in which copper occurs."

FROM REPORT OF PROF. W. F. CUMMINS, FORMER GEOLOGIST OF TEXAS.

"I beg to express my entire satisfaction with and confidence in the reports made by Prof. W. F. Cummins."

"I only had to remove one foot of earth from the surface on the three spots already mentioned in order to find large deposits bedded into the clay. After washing, this clay was found to be 10 per cent of copper ore of the same value as above. These ores could of course be taken out and made available at a relatively small expense."

Every Success Has Its Imitators.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt is a success. Successful in preventing diseases and in curing diseases already developed. Successful in gaining, on its own merits, the endorsements of the leading physicians and medical journals of Great Britain and Canada.

That is why a palpitant imitation of Abbey's Effervescent Salt has been placed on the market. The perpetrators of this insult to the intelligence of the public are printers of London, Ontario. Their object was to reproduce as nearly as possible the package used to contain Abbey's Effervescent Salt. The cheap and nasty powder which their package contained did not even have the good point of being palatable. The High Court of Justice has issued an injunction against its proprietors, and its sale has been stopped, but still

WE WARN THE PUBLIC that when buying Abbey's Effervescent Salt to be sure they get it. Shakespeare's head on the package stamps it genuine. Look for it.

There is no effervescent salt but Abbey's Effervescent Salt.

AVOID SUBSTITUTION.
(From the Canadian Druggist.)

There are forms of substitution which are quite as reprehensible as a deliberate giving of something else for the preparation ordered—and one of the latest of these has just come under our notice. Abbey's Effervescent Salt is recognized by the physician and public alike as a valuable remedy. Its sale has been almost phenomenal—a fact which is due to its real medicinal virtue. Recognizing this fact, a package has appeared on the market almost similar in appearance, size and style of bottle and package, and with a label as closely imitative as possible, intended, without doubt, to deceive the public.

It has unfortunately been purchased by some druggists, possibly without considering the evident intention of the makers, and also the loss of custom which must inevitably follow if an attempt is made to sell it in place of the article which it would seek to displace.

FOR sale by all druggists. Large bottles 60c, trial size 25c.

COOPER SHARES. Safest Investment, Largest Dividends.

A portion of the full paid and non-assessable capital stock of the Boston & Texas Copper Company is offered for sale at Five Dollars per Share (at $10 for Treasury purposes), and is recommended as a safe and highly promising investment.

The company controls twelve thousand acres of rich copper land in North Texas which is also valuable for farming and town site purposes. The tract is some 10 miles long and about three miles wide. It is equivalent in size to five hundred ordinary mining claims.

The property has been developed sufficiently to begin producing at once, large amounts of the richest copper ore (40 to 70 per cent) taken out and marketed, and inexhaustible quantities of copper mat and clay running from 3 to 15 per cent. copper ore. (Calumet and Hecla and other great dividend payers are working on 1 to 3 per cent. ore.)

The property is within 12 miles of a railroad and fuel and water are available. The ores and mat are produced on the surface, and can be mined and converted into copper cheaper than any other deposits in America. Copper will be produced on the ground and a plant of moderate cost will treat 300 to 500 tons of ore and material per day, and according to engineers estimate cost $3,000 to $5,000 per day net, with copper at 15 cents per pound. It is now 18 cents per pound.

The property has a historical reputation and a record in the State Geological Reports. It has been examined and reported upon by the highest engineering, geological and expert authorities and its merit and value are established beyond all question. It is not an experiment, nor its value speculative, they are proven and demonstrated.

FROM REPORT OF PROF. W. M. DEVERE, FORMER STATE CHEMIST OF TEXAS.

"Such numerous outcrops of copper ore have been traced over the summit and sides of these hills that out of 12,000 acres of land which the company own, hardly a 160 acre tract should be left without ore up to the surface."

"A cross-cut to the depth of 15 feet was made upon the Isbell lead, and ten hours' work resulted in the raising of 6,000 lbs. of rich copper ore, averaging about 60 per cent. copper. (With $565 net.)"

"The ore is easily melted and the strata in which it is found can also be more economically excavated than other in which copper occurs."

FROM REPORT OF PROF. W. F. CUMMINS, FORMER GEOLOGIST OF TEXAS.

"I beg to express my entire satisfaction with and confidence in the reports made by Prof. W. F. Cummins."

"I only had to remove one foot of earth from the surface on the three spots already mentioned in order to find large deposits bedded into the clay. After washing, this clay was found to be 10 per cent of copper ore of the same value as above. These ores could of course be taken out and made available at a relatively small expense."

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and faint smudges. A small, irregular tear is visible near the top edge, and there are some very faint, dark spots scattered across the surface. The overall tone is a warm, off-white or light beige.

YOUR WATCH

may not be running satisfactorily. Chances are you have been allowing it to run too long without oiling and cleaning, thus it is what ruins the majority of watches.
A watch should be taken apart at least once in 2 years. If yours has been going longer than that, we should advise you to bring it to us, where it will be thoroughly looked after. Moderate charges.

JOY GO WITH THEM.

Popular Young Lady of Belleville becomes the Wife of a Burlington, Vt., Gentleman.

At 8:30 this morning a quiet but pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Richard McCredon, Catherine street, when his eldest daughter, Miss Maggie, became the partner in life of Mr. Edward Ashley, of Burlington, Vt. Only a few of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present to witness the nuptials. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Wast, pastor of Holloway street Methodist Church. The bride looked charming in a tulle gown of pearl grey, with trimmings of cream chiffon and cream silver gimpure. The services of a bridesmaid and groomsmen were dispensed with. The bride carried in her hand a handsome bouquet of roses intertwined with smilax, the gift of her brother, William, of Toronto. After the ceremony the company partook of a wedding breakfast. At noon the happy couple left for Montreal, where they will spend a few days, they leave for their future home at Burlington. The bride's going away costume was a tailor-made suit of grey, with matching skirt, blouse, and hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Ashley are both well known in the city and have a host of friends. For some time they were engaged as bookkeepers in the establishment of Hon. Wm. Paterson & Son. The bride has for some years been an active member of Holloway street church, having been a member of the choir, Sunday school teacher and identified with all branches of church work. The groom, who is in connection with the church, last evening presented her with a handsome silver cake dish. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful ladies' gold watch and chain. She also received numerous and beautiful presents. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ashley will join with us in wishing them every prosperity and happiness.

MARRIED AT KINGSTON.

One of the Limestone City's Popular Young Ladies Coming to Live in Belleville.

Kingston Times—A very happy event took place this morning in St. Mary's Cathedral, when one of Kingston's fairest young ladies and one of Belleville's most popular young gentlemen were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Father Kehoe. The contracting parties were Miss B. Webb, of Kingston, and Mr. J. J. Walker, of Belleville, son of John Walker, Glenburnie. The bride looked charming in a dress of white brocade silk, trimmed with tulle and pearls, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Katie Webb, sister of the bride, was dressed in a dress of white and pearls. Mr. Joseph Walker, Glenburnie, ably assisted the groom. After the nuptial mass the party drove to the residence of the bride's mother, Rideau street, where a sumptuous repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Walker left on the 1:00 train for Toronto and Niagara, and on their return will reside in Belleville. The presents to the bride were numerous and costly.

Meyers-Finkle Nuptials.

A quiet wedding took place today at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Finkle, Sidney, when his daughter, Mabel, was married to Mr. Meyers, a son of Rev. T. Meyers, of Thurlow, Rev. N. Harris performed the ceremony and was assisted by Rev. Mr. Meyers. Only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present at the wedding.

Results Tell.

The proof of the pudding is the eating. Yesterday the extraordinary power over pain of Polson's Nervine was being tested, and the result was a most convincing one. Polson's Nervine never fails to perform wonders in every case.

Cheese Still Advancing.

The advance in the price of cheese still continues. Yesterday the Liverpool cable quoted the price there at 52 shillings for white and 53 shillings for colored. This is an advance of nearly four shillings within three days.

Sawdust on Fire.

The firemen this afternoon had a run to Lingham's mill, Dundas st. Some boys had ignited a pile of sawdust and the flames threatened to extend to the mill property. The blaze was soon extinguished.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

That Belleville's Labor Day celebration will take the usual form. There will be excursions to take people out of town to spend their money.

That some of the city folk don't give good measure. Even if it is a dry season and their wells have failed they shouldn't "take it out" of their customers.

That Ontario Liberals must be in desperate straits when they want to form a coalition Government.

That this is awfully warm weather to think of getting married, but from all accounts, six of Cupid's victims in Belleville will promise to love, honor and obey inside of a week.

That the "Peping Tom" who goes round at night on certain streets on the east side of the river, trying to see into people's houses, may make the acquaintance of a horse whip one of these nights.

That every prominent Methodist in the City should have a photograph of the Dundas st. fire on their mantel.

He could then, when entertaining visitors from a distance, "point with pride" to the loving care (?) Belleville Methodists show to the last resting places of their dead.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Scientific Road Machinery for Ameliasburgh.

In June Mr. A. W. Campbell, Provincial Road Inspector, was secured by the Rev. Mr. Ed. Anderson, to address a public meeting in the Town Hall, Rollins Mills, on the subject of "Road Making." A resolution was passed by the meeting urging the municipal council to purchase some scientific road machinery. Public sentiment has since endorsed the meeting's decision and as an outcome the Council have purchased a road machine for grading and a stone crusher and screen. The machinery was purchased from a Hamilton firm, and will arrive in Cosneson in a few days. It will at once be used on a piece of road to which a grant had been appropriated.

It has become necessary to expend some $800 per annum in grants to roads, and this large annual outlay and the scarcity of good gravel have made the purchase with a necessary and economical outlay.

The question of better roads in rural districts has become a live question for municipal legislators to combat, and Ameliasburgh and its council are to be congratulated on being the first township in the County to start in the right way. The Council have been very wise in so well pleased with the results that other municipalities will "go and do likewise."

Clorious News.

Come from Dr. D. B. Cargill, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Balm have cured Mrs. Brown of erysipelas, in connection with the cure, she has had her face and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent. This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Balm is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, helps peloporus, helps digestion, builds up the blood. 50c bottle. Sold by J. S. McKeown, Druggist, Guaranteed."

Cage Birds.

We have just received a copy of Brock's Birds, which is the most complete and up-to-date practical book on the food, diseases, breeding, judging, washing and color feeding of canaries with valuable information on parrots and other cage birds that we have seen. The work is evidently written by one who has a thorough knowledge of his subject, and will prove interesting reading to all owners of cage birds. We are surprised to find from its pages the number of varieties of canaries bred in Canada, there being thirty-one classes of one bird show in Toronto. The chapter on the washing of canaries accompanied by illustrations of same, is the first time that this subject has been treated in a Canadian work and that on Exhibitions and Judging cannot fail to be helpful both to the amateur and also to the experienced breeder. The book contains 200 pages and over 40 illustrations in the book, which is neatly printed with good clear type and is published by Nicholson & Brock, of Toronto. Price 25c, post free.

NEWS IS VERY BELUCOSE.

President Kruger Seems Determined to Have a Fight.

From Paul Says the Position is Defined by the Rhetoric—Premier Schreiner Called to Account by the Thunderer for His Misconception of Duty—What Joubert Says—Everything in South Africa Looks Like War.

London, Aug. 30.—The Johannesburg correspondent of The Morning Post says: President Kruger, in the course of an interview yesterday regarding the crisis, said he considered the Boer position lost defined by Paulin 83.

Must Prepare for War. Johannesburg, Aug. 30.—The Standard and Digges' News credits General Joubert, the commander-in-chief of the Transvaal forming the Vice-President of the Republic, with the statement that, although he is personally desirous to do everything to preserve peace, the situation is such that the Republic must be prepared for war.

Reluctance to Misconception of Duty. London, Aug. 30.—The Times, referring to this morning editorially to the statement of the Hon. Mr. Schreiner, the Cape Premier, that in the event of war he would to his loss to keep the Cape in the Union, says: "This is a startling misconception of duty. When the Government of the Cape is asked to support the Republic, it is the duty of all loyal subjects, whatever their position, not to keep aloof, but to do their utmost to bring the struggle to a successful end."

Uitlanders suffering. Cape Town, Aug. 30.—Despatches received here from Pretoria and Durban show that the Uitlanders are suffering greatly from the strain involved in the political crisis. Many ladies are leaving Johannesburg for Natal. The women are preparing a petition to Queen Victoria in favor of peace, which will be sent to all parts of the colony for signatures.

Trade at a Standstill. Owing to the continued tension and warlike conditions, trade in many places is practically at a standstill and great distress prevails among the poorer classes, both at Johannesburg and here.

It is reported that 200 horses, which were disarmed yesterday at Delagoa Bay, presumably for the Transvaal, have been held, pending instructions on the subject.

An Alarming Tendency. London, Aug. 30.—The Pretoria correspondent of The Daily Chronicle, telegraphing Tuesday, says: "Events have taken an alarming turn. Great Britain, at the request of the Uitlanders' council, has enlarged the original demands of Sir Alfred Milner, the British high commissioner, and is adopting the views of Cecil Rhodes, that President Kruger will never surrender an inch of ground. I have heard of high authority for asserting that President Kruger, the Volksraad and the Transvaal Government are making an unconditional demand for giving effect to the Milner program, but will concede reforms on the conditions already reported."

A Boer ship has been arrested in Ramatlam Camp, in British Bechuanaland.

Overland Will Help.

Brisbane, Aug. 30.—In consequence of the increased tension in the Transvaal affair, the Queensland Government is making preliminary arrangements to despatch a contingent to South Africa.

Willie Houston Accused.

Chatham, Ont., Aug. 30.—Acting Crown Attorney J. A. Walker yesterday put forward a charge against Willie Houston of manslaughter. This is the outcome of the fatal shooting at Erie Beach on Aug. 14. Magistrate Gossell of Belhellen was asked to receive the information, as the lad is a son of Mr. Houston, city and county magistrate. Mr. Gossell declined. It is said, however, that his jurisdiction did not extend outside of Belhellen.

A Steamer Burned.

Toronto, Aug. 30.—The steamer Chicomini, which was in commission between Toronto and Victoria Park, was burned early yesterday morning. The boat was on its way to Victoria when it was near the eastern end of the lake. The fire is supposed to be the work of saboteurs.

A Bullet in His Hip.

Hamilton, Aug. 30.—A shooting accident took place at Mount Hope yesterday morning, when John L. Gault, aged 40 years, of Ald. George Curtis, of Simcoe, received a 22-caliber ball in his right hip in the afternoon. He was taken to the hospital where the bullet was removed. Young Curtis was wheeling along the road, and was unfortunately shot by a bullet fired by a young man who was shooting birds.

Boy Lost a Foot.

Cremora, Ont., Aug. 30.—While cutting grain with a binder on Monday night last, Roy, a boy about 14 years of age, and son of Roy Rorral, running just inside the town, got off the binder and went in front of it to remove a sheaf which was in the way. The horse started and his right foot was caught in the knives and so badly injured that it had to be amputated at the ankle.

High Commission to Meet.

Montreal, Aug. 30.—The Herald's resident correspondent in Washington sends the following: A member of Congress authorized in the most positive manner yesterday the statement that a virtual understanding has been reached between the Washington Administration and the Transvaal Government of the joint high commission, and that the meetings of the body will be renewed in November.

Two Little Girls Drowned.

Smith's Falls, Ont., Aug. 30.—Yesterday afternoon Annie Menagh, daughter of Robert Menagh, and Sophia Gallepeau, daughter of Charles Gallepeau, two little girls of about 10 years of age, had gone in bathing, together with two other girls, in the Rideau River, and, getting beyond their depth, were both drowned.

Buried a Tombmaker.

Windsor, Aug. 30.—David Moore, a Tombmaker, was buried by a man who professed to be a doctor, and gave him acids and took his wallet containing $10.

A man never makes a guess at his life's work, but he doesn't cause a family row.

A man has not only to fight against the possibility of what a woman will do, but also what she dreams about him.

Every woman occasionally curls her hair and starts out freely to be happy in a life of ease. By fate is meant an unappreciative husband.—Atchison Globe

A SPOOK PHOTOGRAPH.

It Was Easy to Make, but It Puzzled the Experts.

A photographer in his roll top took and sent a somewhat battered card de visite of his country. He represented a young man seated at a table, and behind him a woman. The young man wore a dark suit, and the woman a light dress. The photograph was a very good one, and the woman's face was very clearly visible. The photograph was a very good one, and the woman's face was very clearly visible.

The "spook" picture, which puzzled scientists and gave rise to all sorts of prophecies, was one created such a future in this country. As you can see, it was a very good one, and the woman's face was very clearly visible. The photograph was a very good one, and the woman's face was very clearly visible.

—To prove the case against Canada, the whole world at the present moment, is, says a contemporary, pointing to the fact that wholesale, unblushing corruption is being practiced with scarcely an audible murmur of dissent.

—That undesirable railways are being purchased to enable the Government to pay off its debt to a band of half a dozen schemers who paid for the Government the expenses of half a dozen big elections.

—That millions for out of the way, unneeded wharves, and so called public structures are being worse than wasted, because such expenditure created the beneficiaries a yearning appetite for more until the demand for Government favors will become insatiable.

—That the debt of Canada, which is a direct mortgage on every inch of land in city, town, village and hamlet, is run up by the five of millions with a light hearted disregard of public opinion that the farmers and city land owners thought it was none of their business.

—That the aggregate value of all the land owned by private people is worth just so many millions, less the $205,000,000 of the nation's debt, and this debt whose figures are run up so mainly by the Government, is one reason for depreciation in the value of farms and other real estate.

—That the corruption of land and other real estate, by the merely tenants or proprietors, pay the interest on the national debt just as surely and more surely than they pay other debts, for they have no option.

—From the value of all real estate must sooner or later be deducted the encumbrances upon it.

—The strange part of it all is that the people who pay the piper, consciously or unconsciously, could instantly call a halt to the extravagance, the corruption, the debt-making of any and all Governments.

—When the people decide to give their support to measures instead of men there will be hope for Canada.

—If from this day forth the people, the independent, uncorrupted, high minded remnant of the people of Canada would resolve that every Government, Liberal or Tory, that misbehaves, must be punished for it, the leaders of both sides would realize that at last there is such a thing as public opinion in Canada.

—It needs no new party to do it.

Corbett Will Fight James.
New York, Aug. 29.—James J. Corbett will have another chance to win back the title of champion pugilist of the world, which he lost to Bob Fitzsimmons in Carson City two years ago. The former champion will be matched to fight the winner of the Jeffries-Sharkey battle in October. This will be a money-making day for Corbett. Tom O'Rourke, representing Sharkey, and William A. Brady, the only condition imposed upon Corbett was that he post a forfeit of $1,000 as a guarantee of good faith as soon as all the arrangements for the Jeffries fight are completed.

This Corbett agreed to do. Corbett says that the rest he has enjoyed for several months has done it all good, and his health is better now than it has been for some time.

Sharkey will begin training to-morrow for his contest with Jeffries. He has chosen New Dorp, S. I., for his training camp. Sharkey will be trained by Herrick, of Providence. I. Herrick will devote part of the time to sparring with Sharkey, with the idea of making the sailor pugilist fast and clever with his hands. Fids for the battle will close with Mattie Clune at the Vanderbilt hotel on Friday.

Fishing Competition.

Weather was perfect yesterday for fishing but catches were small. Two boats completed and first prize $5, given by Mr. W. B. Biggar, was won by Gillick and L. F. Lalonde with 10 bass. Second prize, $2, given by Mr. Biggar, won by R. Tuite and W. Crysler, 6 bass, who also won Mr. McCormick's prize for heaviest fish, weight 2 lbs. 10 oz. Walbridge & Clarke's box cigars was won by Jas. Temday on an all day event, boats may leave at any time after 8 a. m., return 9 p. m. Several good prizes are on the list, and every angler in the city should take part.

At Ottawa yesterday, in the Victoria match, Capt. S. W. Vermilion, of the XV. Battalion, scored 68 points, winning $5.

THEIR DOORS CLOSED.

Two of our Front St. Merchants Have Made Assignments.

Two of our business places have been closed to-day, and enquiry elicited the fact that both have assigned. They were Mr. J. Brader, hatter and furrier, and Mr. C. Schubert, druggist, who had both been in business for some time. The former assigned to Mr. Chas. N. E. McIntyre, merchant of this city, and Mr. Schubert assigned to the Sheriff. The assets and liabilities could not be ascertained.

Where it Comes From.
People who wear false hair will be interested in the announcement of a strange discovery made at Antwerp. In that city a shaft of human hair, weighing 72 pounds, was stolen from a railroad station. The hair was found in the gun instead of the one in front of it. St. Paul Pioneer Press.

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

A Chinese reformer says there is going to be a revolution which will change the way they wear their hair in the same way as Americans. The Chinese pigtail must certainly be an invitation to domestic war if the woman of the family is at all belligerent, but why should it cause civil war?

A Denver man who has just been released from prison where he was serving a term for stealing $200,000 has fallen heir to $100,000. The question now is, has the reformation been complete enough to force him to turn this money over to the victims?

Hamilton Spectator—Canada is enjoying a growing time; but the country ought to be doing better. We are importing annually nearly a hundred millions of dollars' worth of goods from the United States, which—with the exception of coal and some other articles of raw material—could be produced in Canada. Think of the work and wage which an additional expenditure of $100,000,000 yearly would bring to Canadian workers! The tariff is too low, and the Canadian government has set the bad fashion of buying in the United States things that can be made just as well and as cheaply in Canada.

OVER $1,000.00
Spent during 25 years on Catarrh Remedies and Specialists by a wealthy mill-owner of Port Essington, B.C. At last cured by Japanese Catarrh Cure.

Mr. Joseph Little, the well-known mill-owner of Port Essington, B.C., formerly of Vancouver, writes: "Japanese Catarrh Cure has completely cured me of catarrh, which had troubled me for twenty-five years. I have different doctors over one thousand dollars with different specialists in Toronto, Buffalo and San Francisco, besides trying all other remedies, but the result was only temporary relief. Hearing of the Japanese Catarrh Cure, I purchased six boxes while in Vancouver about two years ago and since completing my treatment have not felt the slightest symptoms of my former trouble. I feel that I cannot say too much for the Japanese Catarrh Cure, which gave me great relief. We also have a supply in the mill and I can find it superior to any other remedy for healing."

If you have tried all other remedies without success, and are at all skeptical as to the merits of Japanese Catarrh Cure, enclose 5 cent stamp and we will mail you free a trial quantity sufficient for nearly two weeks' treatment. Price 30 cents, or six for $2.50, with guarantee to cure or money refunded. If all druggists, or by mail postpaid. Address: The Japanese Catarrh Cure Co., 121 Church st., Toronto. Sold by Dr. M. Waters, cor. Front and Bridge st.

HAD A CLOSE CALL.
Brakeman on the Grand Trunk Falls From a Train.

Mr. Robert Morrison, son of Mr. Frank Morrison, who resides on Moira st., had a narrow escape from a horrible death, this morning. He was riding on the tender of the Grand Trunk Falls train, when the foot slip rolled and he fell to the ground. Luckily he rolled clear of the wheels. He is badly bruised, but no bones were broken.

He Fooled The Surgeons.
All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, N. H., that he would die of cancer of the rectum. He would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest cure for cancer of the rectum. He is now 25 cents a box. Sold by J. S. McKewen, druggist.

County Judge's Criminal Court.
Queen vs. Melvaine.—This was a charge for theft at Marmora by Mrs. Melvaine, wife of the defendant, for taking goods which she claimed were her husband's on property owned by him. This case came on for trial before Judge S. S. Lazier this morning at 11 o'clock. After evidence had been all given on behalf of the prosecution, no case having been made out, the Judge honorably acquitted Mrs. Melvaine and discharged him. He said that the evidence was not good enough to send to trial. The case was then adjourned.

Requiescat in Pace.
Many of our citizens were present at the funeral this afternoon of the late Mrs. J. H. Meacham, which took place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. E. Miles, William street. Being a school teacher, she was buried in the cemetery at the time of her death. The service at the house was conducted by Rev. W. E. McIntyre. The bearers were Messrs. W. C. Johnson, J. F. Jeffers, C. F. Smith, Wm. McKewen, W. W. Chown and Al Jones.
